Press Strike Talks Start Again Monday

LANSING (AP) — Bargaining in the 46-day-old Detroit newspaper strike is scheduled to resume Monday in the wake of day-long talks between the opposing sides and Gov. George W. Romney.

If the coming negotiations do not succeed within a week or ten days, the governor said, the strike by pressmen and plate handlers against the morning Detroit Free Press and evening Detroit News could be severely prolonged.

Romney summoned publishers and union leaders to Lansing Thursday and met alternately with them for about six hours. The governor and both sides then agreed on a brief statement by the governor announcing the resumption of talks, but no one would elaborate. The publishers and union leaders left even before the statement was read.

The Free Press laid off virtually all its employees after the July 13 walkout of pressmen and plate handlers in support of new contract demands.

The News has kept editorial, business and advertising personnel on the payroll, but employees said they had been advised by News management that all would go on a four-day-week pay basis next Monday.

Between them, the city's only two dailies employ 4,100, including strikers and other craft unionists.

Checks No Good

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Burglars who broke into the office of Memorial Cemetery ignored a large safe, presumably because a sign atop it said truthfully: "Records only kept here."

But they took a metal box filled with checks that had bounced.

Auto Firms May Extend Union Pacts To Sept. 9

DETROIT (AP) — The first sign of "give" in new contract bargaining between the United Auto Workers Union and the automotive industry's Big Three came from Ford Motor Co. Thursday.

Ford agreed in principle to extension of its current contract with the UAW until Sept. 9. Normally, the three-year-old pact would expire Monday midnight.

The UAW announced Wednesday night it had picked Chrysler Corp. as its 1964 strike target and would call its 80,000 members in Chrysler plants out at 10 a.m. Sept. 9 unless agreement is reached on a new contract by that time.

Office Of Weekly Paper Bombed In Jackson, Miss.

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Police and FBI agents probed today for clues in the mysterious bombing of the office of a weekly newspaper published by Pulitzer Prize-winner Hazel Brannon Smith.

An explosion ripped the offices of the Northside Reporter in Jackson Thursday night. A policeman said a bomb apparently was thrown through a rear window of the building housing the offices.

No one was in the building. Mrs. Smith won the Pulitzer Prize earlier this year for her editorials, chiefly in the weekly newspaper she publishes at her hometown of Lexington, some 70 miles north of Jackson. She has been criticized by segregationists for her liberal editorial policy.

Mrs. Smith was in Atlantic City, N.J., serving as a commentator at the Democratic National Convention for the National Broadcasting Co.

Today's Chuckle

Some of us don't know what we want, but feel sure we don't have it.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said Chrysler, Ford and General Motors Corp. would be asked to extend their contracts to the strike deadline.

GM and Chrysler told newsmen Thursday they would await a formal union request about the bargaining table before announcing a decision.

But after an hour's meeting at Ford, the company announced it had agreed to extend, although formal language still was to be approved by both sides.

GM and Chrysler bargaining was in recess Thursday. New session, however, were scheduled at all three today. Talks at Chrysler were to follow a meeting of the UAW's Chrysler Council which would direct any strike action.

Ford, like GM and Chrysler, had served contract termination notice on the UAW, saying in effect the union would have to work without a contract beyond Monday midnight if no new agreement was reached by that time.

While Reuther talked beligerently in announcing Chrysler as this year's target, John D. Leary, a Chrysler vice president, and Douglas Fraser, the union's Chrysler chief, soft-pedaled strike talk in interviews Thursday.

"I think that if Chrysler goes along with the Sept. 9 date a lot of pressure will be off our negotiations and we can make some progress before that date," Fraser said, adding: "If we had to stick to the Aug. 31 expiration date, I'm almost certain we'd be in such a mess that no contract could be worked out to head off a strike."

Posters Required In Barber Shops

Heart Attack Is Fatal For Gracie Allen

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Gracie Allen, whose scatterbrained comedy helped make Burns and Allen a top act in show business for 34 years, died Thursday night after a heart attack. She was 58.

Spokesmen for the family said Miss Allen died at 11:15 p.m. and that her husband, comedy actor George Burns, was at her side at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

Contacted at the Burns home in Beverly Hills, William Burns, George's brother, said the popular comedienne had been in seemingly good health before being stricken.

He said she had experienced mild heart attacks in the past. They didn't, however, seem to slow her down much. Ten days ago she and her husband were among the guests at the gala wedding reception for Edie Adams and her new husband, Marty Mills.

Debut At 3½
Miss Allen was born in San Francisco in the year of the great earthquake. Named Grace Ethel Cecile Rosalie Allen, she was one of four daughters of Edward Allen, a song and dance man then booked in San Francisco.

At 3½ she had made her stage debut. But she continued in Catholic schools until he was 14, when she began a dancing act with her three older sisters. Later, she joined an Irish song and dance act and at one time went to secretarial school in Hoboken, N.J. It was in New Jersey that she met George.

She saw him on a bill at Union Hill, N.J., where he was booked as Burns and Lorraine. They met after the show and George revealed he was seeking a new partner. He suggested that Gracie join him.

Gracie recalled later: "Of course George had written this act for himself, with himself as the comedian and I as the straight man. But the funny thing — my straight lines got the laughs. People laughed twice as hard at my not being funny as they laughed at George's being funny. When we came off after the first show, he said, 'We're switching parts, Gracie.' He rewrote the act then and there."

Burns and Allen played vaudeville for three years before he was able to convince her they should get married. They were wed in Cleveland on Jan. 7, 1926.

After their marriage they were propelled into the big time.

They became headliners in vaudeville and starred on the bill that ended Vaudeville at New York's Palace Theater. After guest-starring on Rudy Vallee and Guy Lombardo radio programs, they began their own show on Feb. 15, 1932.

Their career continued in radio and television until Gracie's retirement.

George once analyzed his wife's humor: "Gracie is not really crazy. If she were, we couldn't get a day's work. 'Gracie has a sort of illogical logic. To her, everything else is a little nuts, and after listening to her, you think maybe she's right.'"

The Burns lived in the same Beverly Hills home for 25 years and were a part of the social life, usually in tandem with their close friends, Jack and Mary Benny. The Burns had two adopted children, Sandra, born in 1934, and Ronald, in 1935.

Tax Collections Reach Record Of 112 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal tax collections reached a record of $112 billion during the fiscal year that ended June 30.

During the last four months of the period, the income tax cut was in effect. But most of the taxes collected during this period were on 1963 income, so they did not reflect any substantial impact of the tax cut.

Treasury officials said it will be impossible to assess the full effect of the tax cut until taxes on 1964 income are collected next April 15.

Democrat Team Tackles Campaign To Beat GOP

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Accepting their nominations with the roaring tributes of the Democratic National Convention, President Johnson and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey quickly turned today to the practical business of shaping a campaign aimed at defeating their Republican opponents.

Before they were to leave for a weekend at the LBJ ranch near Johnson City, Tex., the President and Humphrey, his vice presidential running mate, arranged to brief the party's national committee on their fast-forming political plans.

First Humphrey and then Johnson stood Thursday night in the blazing lights on the podium to tell thousands of Democrats at the closing session of their convention that they had enlisted their energies in a crusade to build "the great society" in a tumultuous world.

Fair Play For All
The President, interrupted time and again by applause, said, in accepting nomination for a first four-year elective term, that the election is "not between liberals and conservatives, party and party, platform and platform."

"It is between courage and timidity," he shouted. "It is between those who see what can be, and those who want only to maintain the status quo. It is between those who welcome the future and those who turn away from its promise."

He pledged "a constant, patient effort to move the world toward peace."

"I will use the full resources of the federal government," to assure fair play to all Americans, he continued, and said that his talents would be directed toward "bringing our nation together in unity."

In pursuit of this common purpose," he said, "I believe we shall someday see an America that knows no North, or South, no East, or West — an America undivided by creed or color, untorn by suspicion or strife."

Goldwater Ridiculed
To accomplish this, he said that "those who break the law — those who create disorder — whether in the North or in the South — must be caught and brought to justice."

"In every part of this country the law must be respected and violence must be checked," he said.

Humphrey gave the crowd a lot more to yell about.

The ebullient Minnesota senator, in his acceptance speech, flailed away at Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater. His tack indicated that the Democrats will have a punch-slinging equivalent of Rep. William E. Miller, the GOP vice presidential nominee, in the campaign.

Humphrey extolled Johnson as "the president of all the people" and invited "responsible and progressive Republicans" to enlist under the Democratic banner.

Earlier in the day, addressing a rally of 15,000 Young Democrats, he cautioned them not to boo the mention of Goldwater's name. His theme: "Be kind to Republicans. They might join us."

As the convention howled approval, Humphrey let Goldwater er have it with both barrels as a man "facing backward — against the mainstream of history."

"The American presidency," he said, "is not the place for a man who is impetuous in one moment and indecisive in the next; who is violently for something one day, and violently opposed on the next; whose statements on matters of major policy are so confusing and contradictory that neither friend nor foe knows where he stands."

Applause For Kennedy
The convention had its moment of emotion Thursday night when Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, who had been sitting somberly on a step awaiting his turn, climbed to the podium and stood in full view of the delegates. The filmed 1,000 days of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, was about to be shown.

As handclapping applause began, the organ boomed into sound. Within 30 seconds, it was silent. But the applause went on, welling up from the floor, where state banners were dancing in cadence, to the crowded balconies.

For 13 minutes there was a sustained outburst of sentiment as the slight young man stood motionless, his arms at his sides, the silent symbol of a president who had been murdered and of all of the plan of an administration which had died with him.

Back To Business
When the President had concluded his speech, Johnson held an impromptu news conference with reporters stationed on the platform. His message: The Democrats have a civil rights backlash problem, but the frontlash against the Republican ticket by liberals and independents is three times as strong.

He said the national and state polls show the number of nominal Democrats who will vote Republican in November ranges from "negligible in some states on up to 10 to 15 per cent of the Democrats in some states."

With that off his chest, Johnson marched into a noisy party in a lounge where admirers were singing "happy birthday" in observance of his 56th. There, Johnson cut a 10-foot square cake depicting all of the states, slicing first into the Texas area. Johnson then stepped out on a balcony overlooking the boardwalk, crowded by people for a quarter of a mile in each direction, and watched fireworks outline his picture in the sky.

But it was back to business today, with politics the topic of the hour.

will convene in Michigan Sept. 19 to select their candidates for lieutenant governor and other state offices in the Nov. 3 election.

Some delegates left town still mulling the significance of the fact that former Gov. John Swainson, the national committeeman, and State Chairman Zolton Ferency, had adamantly opposed the convention compromise on the Mississippi dispute.

Swainson and Ferency, who customarily have had strong support from organized labor and particularly the United Auto Workers Union in Michigan politics, were on the opposite side this time from the labor-oriented delegates.

The two, along with delegate Andrew Wisti, were the only members of the 12-member steering committee of the delegation to oppose the compromise—the terms of which were spelled out with White House approval, in a successful effort to head off a floor fight.

The three demanded that Michigan go all the way in pressing for a minority report and a floor fight to give more voting recognition to the predominantly-Negro Mississippi Freedom Democrats, as opposed to the regular, all-white delegation.

Some delegates attached political significance to the Swainson-Ferency position. Ferency is regarded a prime contender for the lieutenant governor nomination, and Swainson has been mentioned as a possible candidate for U.S. Senate in 1966.

Michigan AFL-CIO President August Scholle, who had led arguments for adoption of the compromise on Mississippi, said he could not explain Swainson and Ferency's stand.

He said he considered it an exaggeration to speculate that organized labor had tried to "dump" Swainson, and did not expect the ex-governor's action would cost him labor support in any future race for office. "It would depend on who was running against him," Scholle said.

Old political and religious antagonisms between Buddhists and Roman Catholics that led to the downfall last November of President Ngo Dinh Diem's government stirred the fighting.

The instability in the Communist-threatened nation posed a major test for the triumvirate of Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh and two other top officers selected by the military junta to lead South Viet Nam for two months.

The role of the triumvirate remained cloudy. Khanh, 37, told a news conference the junta had not accepted his resignation as president.

Space Center Escapes; Miami Is Hardest Hit

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Cleo, no longer the blustering monster that roared through Miami, slumped weakly today at the rockets of Cape Kennedy and the city of Daytona Beach.

But the Miami Weather Bureau reported a tendency to redevelop in the offshore portion of the eye, and warned that the present northward track will carry the storm again over the Atlantic where Cleo could draw new energy from the warm Gulf Stream.

Only a 43-mile breeze, punctuated by an occasional gust up to 60, marked the passage of the once vicious storm to the west of Daytona Beach. Damage was superficial.

Warnings Still Stand
Hurricane warnings remained up north to Brunswick, Ga., and a hurricane watch was in effect to Charleston, S.C.

A curving, 2,500-mile path of death and destruction was behind the hurricane. Her known death toll stood at 138.

At 8 a.m. (EST), the center of the wind circulation was estimated by the Weather Bureau to be near Flagler Beach, 13 miles north of Daytona Beach.

The only hurricane winds occurring at the time were in guests, but warnings were left unchanged, pending a penetration of the hurricane by aircraft.

Winds were gusting at 45 miles an hour at Jacksonville Beach and six foot swells pounded the coast. Moderate to heavy rains spread northward into Georgia.

Cleo, which left Miami and 200 miles of Florida's "Gold Coast" looking like a battle zone after striking with winds up to 115 miles an hour, hit Cape Kennedy with winds that peaked at 65 m.p.h.

Rockets Safe
That was 10 miles below hurricane strength, not enough to cause serious damage to the sprawling facility, which was prepared to weather winds more than twice that velocity.

Six giant space rockets rode out the storm lashed securely to their launching pads and crews resumed the work of readying them for firing.

The Weather Bureau at Miami said Cleo was expected to move offshore this morning and intensify. Hurricane warnings remained up at Brunswick, Ga., and Gale warnings extended to Hatteras.

The storm was moving at about 10 m.p.h.

Cleo took no lives in Florida, but the death toll still was climbing in the southwestern tip of Haiti, far behind in the Caribbean.

Citrus Crops Ruined
In the Haitian port city of Les Cayes, Cleo killed 80 persons, destroyed or damaged nearly every building and left the population of 20,000 bewildered and with little food.

Authorities reported Thursday that 44 other persons were known to have died in the surrounding countryside, bringing to 124 the official death toll from Monday's howling winds.

Earlier, Cleo killed 14 on the French island of Guadeloupe. There was no definite estimate of the damage to the Miami metropolitan area, which bore the brunt of Cleo's fury Thursday.

State damage survey teams were to arrive today, and officials said the federal government would be asked to declare the city a disaster area.

As it moved up the coast, Cleo smashed town after town and dealt a blow to a part of Florida's citrus belt that could send grapefruit prices rocketing upwards.

Streets Blocked
In the south-central area some growers estimated 50 to 75 per cent of the grapefruit crop, now reaching maturity, was blown off.

First surveys of damage showed: Metropolitan Miami — eighty per cent power failure, 61,600 homes out of service, 12,000 phones damaged, store windows smashed and merchandise ruined, streets blocked by fallen

Saigon Menaced By Armed Mobs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Mobs roamed the littered streets of Saigon today, waving machetes and meat cleavers as heavily armed troops stood guard to prevent further bloodshed.

Street gangs defied pleas from Catholic, Buddhist, and government leaders to lay down their arms and go home.

A mob of 200 predominantly Buddhist youths carrying clubs and hatchets set fire to a Catholic newspaper office and school while police looked on. The incident was a renewal of Thursday's organized violence that turned the capital into a nightmarish scene of lawlessness and mob rule.

Scores were wounded in fierce battles that left the streets cluttered with bricks, broken bottles and glass. Hospitals reported more than 60 innocent persons were injured.

Police placed the death toll at four. Newsmen, however, counted at least eight bodies.

Old political and religious antagonisms between Buddhists and Roman Catholics that led to the downfall last November of President Ngo Dinh Diem's government stirred the fighting.

The instability in the Communist-threatened nation posed a major test for the triumvirate of Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh and two other top officers selected by the military junta to lead South Viet Nam for two months.

Czechs Escape To West Germany Under Red Fire

WALDHAUS, Germany (AP) — Two 21-year-old Czechoslovaks rammed a truck through Communist border barriers today and escaped to West Germany under heavy Red fire, German police reported.

The two escaped at Rozvadov, main border crossing point between Czechoslovakia and West Germany.

Primary Ballot Is Lengthy One

Preparations are being completed throughout Michigan for the primary election to be held on Tuesday, Sept. 1, in which interest centers on the nomination of party candidates.

There are nomination contests for state, congressional and legislative offices; while in Delta County itself there is not one race for nomination for any county office. Democratic incumbents are unopposed in the primary for renomination and there is but one Republican candidate for a county office and he also is unopposed in the primary.

There is local and regional interest, however, in the primary race for Delta County legislative representative, and for state senator for this district.

Within the Escanaba Area Public Schools district there is a school millage proposal which has aroused interest and controversy. The Area school district is composed of Escanaba city and the Townships of Wells, Ford River and Cornell.

The proposition is to levy 4 mills for 5 years to finance school operations. The question is one on which all electors—including non-property owners—may vote. The proposal will be on the voting machines in Escanaba city and Wells Township, Ford River and Cornell use paper ballots.

On a non-partisan ballot there will be nominated candidates for Judge of the Court of Appeals and for Probate Court Judge of Delta County. There is no primary contest for the latter office.

The polls will open on Tuesday at 7 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m.

Don Guindon, Escanaba city clerk, said that about 90 absent voters ballots have been applied for so far, and that the deadline for applications is 2 p. m. Saturday. Qualified electors who will be unable to be at the polls on Tuesday may apply for and vote at the office of the city clerk in the City Hall before the deadline.

Escanaba city has seven precincts. Three machines have been installed in the polling place in each precinct.

The city clerk directed attention of voters to the election of two delegates to the county convention, part of Tuesday's primary. These names must be written in and the names must be those of persons who are from the precinct in which the voter resides.

A school of instruction for election workers will be held in the Webster School at 7 tonight. City Clerk Guindon and Bruno Nardi, supervisor of elections, Secretary of State's office, will conduct the session.

Polling places in Escanaba for the Tuesday primary are: Precinct 1—Court House, Ludington St. entrance; Precinct 2—Bay de Noc Community College, West Hall; Precinct 3—Bay de Noc Community College, East Hall; Precinct 4—Jefferson School, 2nd Ave. S. and 15th St.; Precinct 5—Junior High School, N. 16th St. entrance; Precinct 6—Lemmer School, 7th Ave. S. and 20th St.; Precinct 7—Webster School gymnasium, 12th Ave. N. entrance.

MENOMINEE — Wesley G. Prince has been elected to the Menominee Board of Education to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Gar Royal, who is being transferred from Menominee by Signal Electric Co. Prince, a native of Powers, is a tool engineer at the Marathon plant here.

HESSEL — Clark Township voters will be asked to approve a one mill road improvement tax in the Sept. 1 election. It would bring in $9,000 for three years to improve township roads. "We don't have any regular millage now," said Supervisor Albert Lindberg "and are present funds are inadequate."

BESSEMER — The Gogebic County Intermediate School District Board of Education has started proceedings to establish and operate a community college. The Ironwood City Board of Education asked for the action, which would take over its city junior college program and give it a county base.

PREPARING FOR its 75th anniversary, Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church, 12th St. and 4th Ave. S., has its entire interior renovated. The anniversary is to be observed on Sunday, Sept. 13. Narthex ceilings are light beige, walls are light buff, and the walls of the chancel and sanctuary are off white. Woodwork is dark sandalwood. Several new pews have been added to the nave and new doors are being installed in memory of Pastor William Peters and Mrs. Peters. (Daily Press Photo)

Former Resident Tells Of Tornado

Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Berthiaume Jr., 1541 Meadow Court, Port Washington, Wis., both former residents, are busy putting their two and a half year old home back into livable condition.

The Berthiaumes' home was severely damaged by the tornado that struck Port Washington last Saturday. They are now living amidst broken glass, uprooted trees and trying to help neighbors whose homes were completely demolished.

Mrs. Berthiaume is the former Rosemary Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Nelson, 2521 Lake Shore Drive and her husband is the son of the senior Berthiaumes who live at Rte. 1 Gladstone.

In a letter to their parents Mrs. Berthiaume described their experiences and told how they felt during and after the tornado. The letter reads:

"Aug. 22, 1964 is a day no one in this town or neighborhood is likely to forget. As most of us were sitting down to supper we all saw trees, etc. flying through the air. By some miracle it happened to be a Saturday when all the husbands were home and it was raining so all the children were in the house. As we saw the huge branches fly by Louis yelled 'get to the basement' and grabbed Danny, age four, Joey, three, while I took Eddy, two, and ran.

"As we reached the bottom step we heard the doors fly open and glass breaking all over the house and a big roar that sounded like a freight train going by. In about 30 seconds it suddenly got real quiet and Louis came upstairs to see if it was safe. He called that the kitchen was safe for the boys to stay in but everything else was glass.

"As I came upstairs I glanced out in the back yard and saw our fence was down and the childrens play gym scattered all over, and then walked into the living room and saw glass all over. We still thought it was a high wind until we looked out of the window. The first thing we saw was a two story colonial home across from us completely gone except for the foundation. A small home next to it looked in fair condition but the one next to that is over half gone."

"Other sections are in very bad condition, too. The cleaning up process will take quite awhile as lots of the wives and children in our neighborhood are staying with friends and relatives away from here. Our house is barely livable, but we have opened it to the husbands who can't stay in their own homes and we have coffee and meals here for all of the clean-up crews.

"Well Rebuild

"All of our neighbors are planning to rebuild in the same place. Every one is so thankful that there were no deaths or serious injuries that we are all glad to accept our property losses. Most of our friends have a sense of humor and everyone you talk to is joking and laughing instead of crying about it. Here is an example of their humor:

"One neighbor, upon walking up his basement steps found only one bedroom left of his beautiful home. As we ran over to see if they were all right he called that they were O. K. and then asked about others.

Big Roar

"As we reached the bottom step we heard the doors fly open and glass breaking all over the house and a big roar that sounded like a freight train going by. In about 30 seconds it suddenly got real quiet and Louis came upstairs to see if it was safe. He called that the kitchen was safe for the boys to stay in but everything else was glass.

"As I came upstairs I glanced out in the back yard and saw our fence was down and the childrens play gym scattered all over, and then walked into the living room and saw glass all over. We still thought it was a high wind until we looked out of the window. The first thing we saw was a two story colonial home across from us completely gone except for the foundation. A small home next to it looked in fair condition but the one next to that is over half gone."

"Other sections are in very bad condition, too. The cleaning up process will take quite awhile as lots of the wives and children in our neighborhood are staying with friends and relatives away from here. Our house is barely livable, but we have opened it to the husbands who can't stay in their own homes and we have coffee and meals here for all of the clean-up crews.

"Well Rebuild

"All of our neighbors are planning to rebuild in the same place. Every one is so thankful that there were no deaths or serious injuries that we are all glad to accept our property losses. Most of our friends have a sense of humor and everyone you talk to is joking and laughing instead of crying about it. Here is an example of their humor:

"One neighbor, upon walking up his basement steps found only one bedroom left of his beautiful home. As we ran over to see if they were all right he called that they were O. K. and then asked about others.

Romney Snips Ribbon At Fair

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. George Romney was set to snip the ribbon today and officially open activities at the 115th annual Michigan State Fair.

Fair officials estimated the 10-day festival will draw more than a million patrons.

The schedule called for Romney to cut the ribbon at the fairgrounds gate, and then move to downtown Detroit for the Opening Day parade at 8 p.m.

In the meantime, country singer Faron Young will perform in the Coliseum beginning at 7 p.m. The State Fair Honors Band, including 70 young musicians from 36 communities, will give a concert in the Music Shell at 7:30. Jazz artists Count Basie and Nancy Wilson take over the Music Shell stage at 9:30.

While all this is going on, other visitors will be watching judo and karate demonstrations. Hank Warren and his Rag Time Band, Mokie Tagab and his Hawaiian Revue, Matt Gouze and his Tamburitan Revue, and Hubert Castle's International Circus.

Briefly Told

Application for a marriage license was made with County Clerk William Butler by John C. Hager, Kalamazoo and Norma J. Houghton, 1507 Wisconsin Ave., Gladstone.

All members of the Knights of Columbus Council 640 of Escanaba are asked to meet at the club rooms at 7 a.m. Sunday, to proceed to St. Francis Xavier Church in Spalding where they will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 a.m. Mass. All 4th Degree Knights are asked to be present in full dress uniform.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chandler and five children visited Wednesday with Mrs. Edith Poisson and Mr. and Mrs. William LaVigne. The Chandlers were enroute to their home in Pamona, Calif., from Detroit where they visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaVigne, former residents of Bark River.

State Lists Elk Hunters

Hugh M. Fish, Box 463A, Manistique Rte. 1, can count himself "in" as one of 300 residents who late this fall will be the first to hunt elk in Michigan in modern times.

His application was among those to be clicked out as a successful entry after Governor Romney Wednesday pressed the button to put this year's elk license drawing in motion at the Department of Revenue's Data Processing Center in Lansing.

More than 23,000 applications were entered in the drawing. At the outset, each applicant had an equal chance of being successful. However, sheer numbers put the odds 78 to 1 against getting a license to take part in the state's history-making Dec. 5-13 elk hunt.

Identification forms which the successful ones must fill out and return to the Department are issued elk hunting licenses are being sent out this week.

The hunters from the Upper Peninsula are:

Hugh M. Fish, Manistique Rte. 1; Robert L. Jack, Germfask; James O. Howes, St. Ignace; Edwin A. Ekdall, Baraga Rte. 1; F. A. Welters Jr., Newberry.

SPEAKER AT a temperance program in the Upper Peninsula Auditorium, 210 S. 23rd St., at 9:30 a. m. Saturday will be Dr. Stewart Erhard of Eaton Rapids. The public is invited to attend. Dr. Erhard and his brother, Pastor John Erhard of the local Seventh-day Adventist Church conducted a "Five Day Plan to Stop Smoking" in Escanaba earlier this year, which a recent poll showed to be about 50 per cent effective as of this date. Dr. Stewart will conduct a similar project in Houghton starting Saturday night.

Bureau Meets At Gurosh Home

BARK RIVER—The August meeting of the Toad Creek Farm Bureau was held at the Edward Gurosh home in Wilson. Mrs. Chester Good, County Farm Bureau Women's Committee chairman, reported that six women from the Toad Creek and Pioneer Farm Bureaus attended the District 11 Farm Bureau meeting held in L'Anse. They were Mesdames Clem Ouradnik, Wayne Hooker, John E. Kleiman, Ray Kuhsarski, Edward Gurosh and Chester Good.

Sue Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lief Wilson of Stephenson, represented the County Farm Bureaus as Miss Farm Bureau, at the Upper Peninsula State Fair. Mesdames Chester Good, Loren Aderman, Louis Dubord of Harris, and Mrs. Betty Veaser of Powers went to Pinecrest Medicare Facilities to help with the games program for the patients.

The discussion topic was "Outlook for Next Year's School Dollar" and Alex Jorasz was discussion leader. The next meeting will be held at the Wayne Hooker home Monday, Sept. 14. The next Political Action Workshop will be held at the Bark River-Harris Elementary School Tuesday, Sept. 15, at 8 p. m. All county officials will be present to discuss and explain the duties and structure of county government.

Powers Postmaster Applications Open

An examination for postmaster at Powers at $5,735 a year, will be open for acceptance of applications until Sept. 22, the Civil Service Commission announces.

Competitors must have at least one year of experience (education above high school level may be substituted for 6 months of experience) showing that they have the ability to maintain simple records of accounts or that it has given them a knowledge of postal procedures.

Application forms must be filed with the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C., and must be received or postmarked not later than the closing date.

C-C Retailers Plan Dollar Day

A Dollar Day promotion, to be held on Wednesday, Sept. 23, is planned by the Retail Division of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce. The monthly meeting of the Retail Division was held at the House of Ludington Thursday noon with Chairman John Lasnoski presiding.

The promotion committee of the Division will plan details of the event, in addition to arrangements for other fall promotion events.

The Sidewalk Day event held on Wednesday, July 22, was analyzed by the committee, with the consensus that it was highly successful.

Chamber Manager Walter Lewke outlined plans for the U. P. Logging Congress which will be held Sept. 10-12 and will attract about 500 delegates and visitors, and many additional spectators for the huge Loggers parade Saturday afternoon, Sept. 12 at 2 p. m.

Black Campaigns For New Court

"It's necessary to meet the persons concerned with the new Michigan Intermediate Court of Appeals in order to serve it well," says Atty. Maurice Black of Saginaw, who is one of the 10 candidates for nomination to the court in the Sept. 1 primary. He was campaigning in Escanaba today in winding up an Upper Peninsula tour.

Black, a native of England who went to Canada as a youth, was schooled at Windsor, Ontario and came to the United States in 1924. He lived in Detroit for 10 years, then practiced law in Clare County for three years and after that went to Saginaw, where he has been practicing since.

He is a graduate of the Detroit College of Law and a past president of the Saginaw Bar Association. He was unanimously endorsed by the Association for the appellate court post.

Black worked his way through college nights while working days as a toolmaker and he remains interested in mechanical enterprises. He collaborated with Dr. Robert Janichien, Saginaw orthopedic surgeon, in developing several new devices for use in bone surgery, including a hip prosthesis for which he holds a patent with Dr. Haenichen.

He left the law temporarily during the war to serve as a skilled toolmaker, and later replaced the late Judge Holland as assistant prosecutor of Saginaw County when Holland was nominated for circuit judge. He has also held other public and judicial offices.

He lives with his family in South Saginaw and is a partner of Atty. Frank R. Vargas in the Saginaw law firm of Black & Vargas. Mrs. Black is the former Celia Levin Midland, Mich. Black has six sons. One is a professor of mathematics at MIT, one is a pharmacist and two are studying law. His son Michael, a student at Detroit College of Law, is accompanying ing his father on his campaign tour.

"I'm impressed with the Upper Peninsula," said Black. "It seems to me to be half of Michigan, not a third; that's the impression I've gotten from my campaigning. I'm amazed at the friendliness of people here, they don't seem to be able to do enough for you."

"The new appellate court will be one of the best things that ever happened to Michigan, provided that the candidates chosen are men who have been in touch with the needs of the average citizen."

"This is really a poor man's opportunity to have his full day in court. Since most of our public are made up of people of average circumstances, they need somebody who has been through the mill and understands their problems to hear their legal troubles."

School Clothing Exchange Plan Offered Here

A "School Clothing Exchange" will be held at the Seventh-day Adventist Auditorium, 210 S. 23rd St., Sept. 1-4 from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

There will be no charge. Persons may exchange as many articles of clothing they bring. They should be cleaned and pressed if possible. Persons wishing to clean out their attics but not needing to exchange items are also invited to bring them.

Clothing left over will be used for needy families locally and overseas.

Salvation Army Sunday School Plans Picnic

The Salvation Army Sunday School will hold their annual picnic on Sunday, Aug. 30 at Pioneer Trail Park. A United Sunday School will be held at the Park at 11 a. m., followed by a dinner. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

Games and contests will be held after dinner and at 3 p. m. an outdoor service will be held. The Corps stringband will take part and other musical numbers will be given. Coffee will be served following this service. There will be no Sunday evening service that day.

L. F. Minerick Dies In Talbot

Louis Frank Minerick, 86, of Hermansville, died at 10:50 p. m. Thursday in Roubal Nursing Home, Talbot, following a month's illness.

Born Aug. 15, 1878, in Yugoslavia, he came to the United States 70 years ago. He was a retired employee of the Wisconsin Land & Timber Co. He was a member of St. Mary's Church and of the Croatian Fraternal Union of American. His wife died in 1932.

He leaves three sons, John of Walworth, Wis., Frank, Greendale, Wis., and George of Sagola, four daughters, Mrs. John Katarincic, Escanaba, Mrs. Frank Van Horn of Darien, Wis., Mrs. Frank Nechazel, Siren, Wis., and Mrs. Eugene Arduin, Hermansville, one sister, Mrs. Helen Perichak, Canton, Ohio, 33 grandchildren and 36 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 12 noon, Saturday at St. Mary's Church, with Father Patrick Frankard officiating. Burial will be in Meyer Township Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Kell-Tondin Chapel in Spalding after 3 p. m. today and the rosary will be recited there this evening at 9.

Runs Into Path Of Car; Boy Is Hit And Injured

A 15-year-old Escanaba boy suffered a concussion and other injuries when he ran into the street and was struck by an automobile in the 1100 block 1st Ave. N. at 8:30 a. m. today.

He is Jack Keane of 310 N. 11th St., who is receiving examination in St. Francis Hospital, where he was taken after the accident. His injuries include a bruised hip.

Escanaba police reported that the car was driven by Percy E. Weinberg, 800 S. 11th St., who was driving west on 1st Ave. N. when the youth ran into the street from the north side.

Officers said Weinberg applied the brakes but was unable to avoid the accident.

Hospital

Emil Scheeneman of Ford River was admitted to St. Francis Hospital this morning for surgery.

Manford Magnuson, 508 S. 17th St., was transferred Thursday from St. Vincent's Hospital in Green Bay to St. Francis Hospital. He is not allowed visitors.

SCHOOL BUSES of the Escanaba Area Public Schools stand ready to roll on Tuesday, Sept. 1, first day of classes in the Escanaba Area district. This year under state law transportation is also provided for non-public school children. Eight new buses have been purchased, $104,000 has been budgeted for transportation, and a total of nearly 1,900 students will be transported. (Daily Press Photo)

Arthur Weaver Stricken At 87

Arthur Weaver, 87, long-time Hermansville resident, died at 1:15 p. m. Thursday at Memorial Hospital in Norway where he had been a patient eight days.

He was born March 24, 1877, in Noble, Ind., and had lived in Hermansville 41 years. He was employed by the Wisconsin Land & Timber Co. until his retirement in 1947.

He married the former Ethel Lodger April 25, 1916, in Treenary. She died May 18, 1946.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Joseph St. John of Powers and Mrs. George Sealy of Hermansville; three sons, Howard, Ironwood; Earl, Chicago; John, San Francisco; two sisters, Mrs. Eva Mojos and Mrs. Mildred Sarge, both of Fort Wayne, Ind., 18 grandchildren and one great grandson.

Friends may call at the Kell-Tondin Chapel in Spalding after 2 p. m. today. Services will be held at the Chapel Saturday at 2 p. m. The Rev. Ira Bush will officiate. Burial will be in Meyer Township Cemetery.

Dinner Program Enjoyed By EYC

Escanaba Yacht Club members and families and guests enjoyed a pot-luck dinner program at the Clubhouse Thursday evening that included the showing of color moving pictures of the Aqua-Nuts water ski show.

Harold Meiers, who photographed the water ski show of July 5, presented the film program to the yachtmen, who were impressed by the skill of the water skiers and the quality of performance.

Commodore Don Crawford introduced the program and conducted a brief business session.

EYC events coming up this season include the regular meeting Sept. 9; a standing rib roast dinner on Sept. 12; and the annual picnic meeting at Larry Pratt's at Stonington on Sept. 27.

He presumes that it was another victim of the botulism which has killed so many herring gulls on Green Bay and vicinity.

BARBERSHOP SINGERS of the Escanaba area Thursday night paid tribute to their oldest member, Lambert Peterson, 81, presented him with a life membership card in the SPEBSQSA and a gift memento of the occasion. Lambert first became interested in barbershopping when it was an adult education project back in 1945, and became a charter member when the first barbershop chorus was formed the following year. The presentations were made by chapter President Art Erickson at a combined rehearsal and charcoal grill lunch meeting held at Ollie Nelson's "Hus i Skogen." Trembling Cedars cottage on M-35.

The event will be held Thursday evening, Sept. 3, at the P & H Rod and Gun Club near the Danforth Road ski hill.

William A. Goodfellow of the Fair Store contributes a timely reminder of the dangers that the reopening of schools creates for the community's children in traffic.

Goodfellow was impressed with an appeal, "Spare My Girl, Dad Pleads" which has appeared in newspapers across America. In it a father pleads:

"My daughter, who is 7 years old, is now back in school as usual. Yesterday she wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Coot, sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved goodbye and started off to the hall of learning."

"Tonight we talked about school. We talked about a lot of things and then to bed. She's back there now—sound asleep with Princess Elizabeth, (that's her doll) cuddled in her right arm."

"You guys wouldn't hurt her, would you?" She's a nice kid. "She can run like a deer and dart like a chipmunk. But I can't be with her all the time; I have to work to pay for her clothes and her education. So please help me look out for her. Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections—and please remember that children run from behind parked cars. "Please don't run over my little girl."

Sault Rowboat Woodsman Lands At World's Fair

NEW YORK (AP)—A rugged Michigan lumberjack bachelor arrived at the World's Fair by rowboat Thursday after a 2,000 mile waterway voyage from his home state.

"I'm the greatest boat rider in the world," Anthony (Sea) way, Calery said modestly. "I'm just the greatest in the world, that's all."

Calery, looking much younger than his 45 years, had rowed his 16-foot, 110-pound boat through lakes, rivers, canals and ocean sound to complete the 2,000-mile trip in 75 days—5 days ahead of schedule. He said he averaged 30 miles a day and "I guess I had a strong backwind to help me."

He left his home town of Sault Ste. Marie on June 13 and has been rowing by day ever since. He said he spent a few nights in hotels and motels, slept on the boat several nights and other times slept under the stars on shore.

Johnson Vs. Goldwater

The Republicans went to their national convention at San Francisco with the result in the bag for Barry Goldwater and there was no doubt about the outcome of this week's Democratic convention at Atlantic City which nominated President Lyndon B. Johnson.

There was some speculation and an effort to jazz up uncertainty over the nominees' choice of running mates, but even here the favorites were the choices and there were no surprises. The platform reflected the desires of the nominees.

With the closing of the Democrats' convention the national presidential election campaign will be in full swing and if the conventions were dull the campaign is not expected to be.

It should be historic in that party labels are expected to mean less than they have in American political history. Not since 1872 has there been a duplication of this year's prospect that Alabama will vote Republican in order to vent its displeasure at the Johnson Administration's regard for Negroes. In Mississippi much of the hatred of the late President Kennedy has been transferred to President Johnson and Ole Miss seems just waiting to clobber the Democratic ticket on Nov. 3.

America's wrestling with its conscience on racism has brought such precedent-shattering results and made Senator Barry Goldwater the biggest issue in the campaign. There will be more hopping over party lines in the election than at a flea circus and the prospect creates many uncertainties.

It does not create much uncertainty about the outcome of the election, however. President Johnson is a heavy odds-on favorite to win. The Gallup Poll this week gave him a huge 65 per cent of the prospective vote and Goldwater only 29 per cent, but that is expected to change by the time American voters have been put through the trauma of the campaign.

It is not expected by the political seers nor the pollsters to change enough to elect Goldwater, but it just could and the possibility will make Lyndon Johnson & Co. work with might and main to outdo Santa Claus, Franklin Roosevelt and King Midas.

The Johnson pitch is prosperity. The Goldwater pitch is bumbling in government, especially in foreign policy, and also a call for more integrity in federal government, an issue which the Republicans are expected to hammer hard as they remind the voters of Lyndon Johnson's mentorship of Bobby Baker, the money changer in the Senate, of the Billie Sol Estes scandal in government support boodling and other political peccadilloes.

A Lou Harris poll for Newsweek Magazine shows that for every person who has grown to like Lyndon Johnson more as a man since he's been in the White House, there's another person who likes him less. But it is importantly significant that for every voter who has acquired a distaste for Mr. Johnson's record in office, there are nearly 6 voters who say they have been favorably impressed.

The point on which President Johnson seems most vulnerable is on the handling of government corruption. Where 77 per cent of those polled thought he had been keeping the economy healthy, only 51 per cent thought he had been keeping government clean. This was the only category in which he did not score better than the late President Kennedy.

Where President Johnson's appeal is one of the man in office, that of Senator Goldwater is as a personality, rather than for his stand on public issues. His "war talk" is regarded by even Republican strategists as a campaign liability and there's no way of knowing yet for sure what the white backlash on the civil rights law will be.

Open housing law proponents have found themselves in trouble in several cities, but Gov. Frank Clement, who counted heavily on a backlash vote against Rep. Ross Bass for his vote on the civil rights bill in Congress, found the vote didn't develop and Clement lost the Tennessee primary.

The bell is sounding for the first round and the referee need hardly mouth his familiar counsel to the contestants: "Come out fighting."

The Doctor Says:

Leave Contacts To Specialist

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt.

Q—I have heard that contact lenses could cause blindness and cancer. Is this true? When a person sees well when wearing contacts, what causes blurred vision when the lenses are removed and glasses which are correctly prescribed are put on?

A—To attribute cancer to contact lenses is a vicious rumor of the type which, although completely false is hard to stamp out once it gets started. When properly used, contact lenses will not cause blindness. But careless or improper use may cause scratching or infection of the cornea and lead to some decrease in vision.

When contact lenses have been worn for several hours there is usually some blurring when they are removed. This is due to the pressure of the lenses on the cornea but it should clear up in about 15 minutes. The fitting of contact lenses is not a simple matter like buying a new hat. It should be done only by a qualified eye specialist.

Q—What would be the effect of prolonged exposure to carbon tetrachloride fumes or having this chemical on your hands while removing spots from clothes?

A—Carbon tetrachloride is a powerful poison and should never be used indoors except by an open window. In persons who have been drinking any alcoholic beverage, the effect of this poison is much quicker and more severe. Such symptoms as headache, vomiting, diarrhea and pain in the abdomen may occur after an exposure of only a few minutes if the exposure takes place in an enclosed space.

Absorption of carbon tetrachloride can also occur through the skin but this is much slower and hence less of a hazard. In persons who have had a heavy exposure to the fumes or who have accidentally drunk this poison, severe damage to the kidneys and liver may occur. The best treatment is prevention. Anyone who develops acute carbon tetrachloride poisoning should be treated in a hospital until all danger of a delayed reaction has passed.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

MARQUETTE — Charles N. Pappas, head of the business department at Northern Michigan University, Marquette, will receive his Ph. D. degree from Ohio State University at the summer commencement exercises Aug. 28. Dr. Pappas, associate professor and head of the business department since September 1962, had previously been business consultant at Flint public schools and Waterford Township, Mich., public schools.

Washington Comment

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — There is a steadily growing conflict between Buddhists and Catholics in South Viet Nam.

It appears to be a political confrontation—not a religious conflict. It is due in great measure to the weakness of South Viet Nam's political parties.

These are conclusions I've drawn after talks with dozens of Buddhists and equal numbers of Catholics in Saigon and in the provinces of Viet Nam.

In the United States, people wanting to have a voice in government can gain that voice through a political party. Some exert their influence through a variety of organizations.

In South Viet Nam, the political organizations are pitifully weak. Other organizations—such as labor unions, farmer co-operatives, parent-teacher associations or Chambers of Commerce—are either non-existent or insignificant in strength.

Only three groups—the military, the Catholics and the Buddhists—have the size, the organization and thus the potential for political power.

The Diem government had the backing of the Catholic group. That group is well educated. Because of the French educational system, a great share of the upper echelon of government society in French Indochina and later in South Viet Nam was historically either Catholic or Buddhist.

er Catholic or educated in Catholic schools.

In a very real sense the Catholic-educated people formed the ruling upper class. This was not through trickery or unfairness. It was simply the fact of life resulting from the French colonial educational system, plus an active Catholic missionary effort led by able Western and Vietnamese priests.

Many Buddhists I talked to in Viet Nam were resentful because they believed President Diem had favored the Catholics. Though most believe Khanh tried to be fair, some think he should have done more to make up for what they call "past discriminations."

Most Vietnamese are Buddhists—at least nominally. The total may be 80 to 85 per cent. Less than 10 per cent are Catholic.

Whatever the history, many Buddhists now want a greater role in education and requirements which they feel say in Vietnamese affairs. They favor those who have gone to Catholic schools.

Some Buddhists leaders are beginning to understand the potential nonreligious political power the large but loose-knit Buddhist "organizations" give them. Some Catholic leaders have reached the same understanding.

In all this I could find no evidence of religious intolerance, either on the side of the Catholic or the Buddhists.

Realizing this political potential, the Communist Viet Cong have set out to infiltrate South Viet Nam's Buddhist groups.

North Vietnamese documents disclose Red boss Ho Chi Minh has ordered this infiltration be given top priority.

Vietnamese Buddhists told me it was simple for a man to become a Buddhist monk novice. He had only to shave his head, put on a robe and apply for admission. By Buddhist rules no questions can be asked.

"I am certain the Viet Cong have already infiltrated many Buddhist temples," one sincere Buddhist said to me. The Buddhist governor of a South Viet Nam province told me the same thing as we flew together on a plane to Saigon.

These are suppositions I was unable during my stay in South Viet Nam to find anyone who had facts on Red penetration of South Viet Nam Buddhism.

Older Men Take Pensions Earlier

An increasing number of older men in good health are choosing to retire, rather than go on working, according to the results of a study just released by the Social Security Administration.

The new report is based on personal interviews with a cross-section of the nation's 9 million men aged 62 and over, including both those who are social security beneficiaries and those who are not.

About one out of five of the recently retired men 65 or over, the report shows, gave a preference for leisure as the reason for retirement. In a 1951 survey of social security beneficiaries, only three in 100 men gave this reason for retiring.

Noting that 96 per cent of the aged men who were still working (or to work less), would be eligible for retirement benefits, the report concludes that retirement benefits are an important factor in voluntary retirement.

Ensigners Meet At Safford Home, On Trip Thursday

ENSIGN—Due to rainy weather, the Ensigners 4-H Club meeting was held at the Thomas Safford home Monday evening. The meeting was scheduled for Maywood Shores, with host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Cobb.

After the evening meal, the club members sang "Happy Birthday" to member Jane Ann LaCrosse. A birthday cake decorated with the 4-H colors of green and white and 4-H's symbol of the four leaf clover was presented to Jane Ann for her twelfth anniversary. Mrs. Cobb baked and decorated the cake and her granddaughter, Jean Pajnich, found three four leaf clovers growing in her front yard for the cake's decorations.

Final plans were made for Thursday's trip to Tahquamenon Falls. The boat trip and refreshments cost is being paid by the club's treasury for the 40 participants. Parents providing transportation are Mrs. William Pajnich, Mrs. Herbert Lundin, Mrs. Emil Groleau, Mrs. Donald LaCrosse, Mrs. Lloyd Sundberg, Stanley Dominick and Thomas Safford.

The club was congratulated on its fine showing at the U. P. State Fair. Tom Safford presented his blue ribbon demonstration on home safety. Tom will go to East Lansing Aug. 31 to enter in 4-H state demonstration competition.

The club's next meeting will be held at the Ensign Township Hall Saturday, Sept. 19. This will be the summer club's award banquet and final meeting.

Calvary LCW Holds Service At Luther Home

RAPID RIVER—The LCW of Calvary Lutheran Church conducted services Sunday at the Luther Home in Marinette. The Luther Home has 39 older guests at the present time and is supported by the benevolent giving of the Wisconsin and Upper Michigan Synod. Pastor Mark Wickstrom is director of the Home.

The Rev. George Olson of Calvary conducted devotional services and Darryl Lindquist provided vocal selections with his own piano accompaniment.

Attending the Sunday services were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Case, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lindquist, and Darryl, Mrs. Harry Pearson, Mrs. Hazel Stenlund, Mrs. Agnes Nygren, Mrs. Jenny Johnson, Mrs. Olaf Pearson, Mrs. Louis Coppick, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Schoenberg and Rev. George Olson.

Smorgasbord Is Successful Affair

RAPID RIVER—The women of St. Charles Borromeo Church of Rapid River were well pleased with the attendance at their bazaar and smorgasbord held Sunday. The affair usually held in October was planned earlier this year and was successful. The serving table was complemented by a beautiful floral centerpiece arranged by Mrs. Andrew Wils. A new feature of the smorgasbord was a salad bar which was popular with the people. The salad bar trial was suggested and directed by Mrs. Ed Lamberg. The women of St. Charles plan to make the bazaar and smorgasbord an annual affair.

HISTORY REPEATS

Both President Lincoln and President Kennedy were concerned with the issue of Civil Rights. Lincoln was elected in 1860; Kennedy in 1960.

Both were slain on a Friday and in the presence of their wives. Both were shot from behind and in the head. Their successors, both named Johnson, were Southern Democrat and both were in the Senate. Andrew Johnson was born in 1808; Lyndon Johnson in 1908.

John Wilkes Booth was born in 1839; Lee Harvey Oswald was born in 1939. Booth and Oswald were both assassinated before going to trial. Both President's wives lost children through death while in the White House.

Lincoln's secretary, Kennedy by name, advised him not to go to the theater. Kennedy's secretary, whose name was Lincoln, advised him not to go to Dallas.

John Wilkes Booth shot Lincoln in a theater and ran to a warehouse. Oswald shot Kennedy from a warehouse and ran to a theater.

The names Lincoln and Kennedy each contain seven letters. The names Andrew Johnson and Lyndon Johnson each contain 13 letters. The names John Wilkes Booth and Lee Harvey Oswald each contain 15 letters.

Does history repeat itself? Andrew Johnson was not re-elected. Ulysses S. Grant (a Republican) was elected—and his name begins with a "G". Contributed

Dear Ann Landers: I am going with a nut. Last night when he arrived to take me to a party he had a black patch over a perfectly good eye. At first I was frightened. I thought something terrible might have happened to him. I should have known better. He is always doing crazy things like that.

If the party is formal he wears a dinner jacket—and tennis shoes. Or, instead of a formal shirt, he'll wear a turtleneck sweater or an ascot.

Last year he grew a half a mustache. I refused to kiss him till he shaved it off. (It took three weeks before he gave in.)

Last week he tried to pay a bar bill with Chinese money. He got into an argument with the bartender and I was embarrassed to tears. We were asked to leave.

Believe it or not, he has many fine qualities and is considered a good catch. I'd like to marry him, but frankly I'm afraid. What do you say? — SHAKEL SHIELA.

Dear Shakey: If these small-boy antics embarrass you now, I can promise you that after marriage they will drive you out of your mind.

A guy who is as flaky as this one sounds, would probably sign the marriage certificate with invisible ink—then where would you be, Toots?

Dear Ann Landers: We gave our daughter a telephone of her own for her 16th birthday. It was what Linda wanted most in all the world. She begged for it for two years. To be honest, I was happy to see her get her own telephone because our line was constantly tied up by her calls. This is what happened:

The other evening my husband and I were out. He was expecting an important business call and tried to telephone home to learn if the call had come through. Well, he tried for 30 minutes to get our line without success. He finally got so mad he got into the car and drove home. There he found Linda, lying on our bed yacking on our telephone.

He asked her why she was not using her own phone. She replied, "I am expecting Bill to call and I wanted to leave my line free." What do we do NOW? — STONEWALL.

Dear Stonewall: Now you for Saint Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa., for four years. He is a 1960 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh.

ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait", gives sound and solid rules for teenage dating. To receive a copy, enclose your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Calvary Will Sponsor Open Air Meeting Sunday

Members and friends of Calvary Baptist Church are invited to an open air meeting Sunday, beginning at 2:30 p.m. at the Andrew Johnson home in Cornell.

The Rev. Reynold Hamrin, former pastor of the church, will be the speaker of the afternoon and special musical numbers will be provided.

Hostesses for the meeting which is sponsored by the Women's Missionary Society, are Mrs. Carl Buckland, Mrs. Wallace Campbell, Mrs. Carl Frans, Mrs. Andrew Johnson and Mrs. Ralph Rose.

Attend Farewell For Rev. Crawford At Gladstone

RAPID RIVER — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Ray LaBumbard of Rapid River attended the farewell party for the Rev. and Mrs. Meldon E. Crawford of Gladstone held at Memorial Methodist Church. The Olsons and LaBumbards represented the Rapid River Congregational Church where Rev. Crawford has been serving as guest minister.

Rev. Crawford will leave Gladstone Sept. 2 for Wayne, Mich., where he will assume the duties of assistant minister of the Wayne Methodist church. Following lunch, Wallace Cameron presented personal gifts to the Crawfords and also a traveling bag filled with cards of remembrances from friends. The suitcase was covered with stickers from all parts of the country. Cameron reminisced about special happenings in the Crawford family life and provided an entertaining evening for everyone present.

Rev. Crawford has served the Gladstone Church 20 years.

Mrs. Sundin Is Reelected Head Of Bureau Women

ISABELLA — The luncheon meeting of Delta County Farm Bureau Women's Association, held at Katie's Dinette in Gladstone Thursday, Mrs. Harvey Sundin was reelected chairman for the coming year. Mrs. Edith Krzyzanski is vice chairman and Mrs. George Coppas, secretary.

Plans were made for a dinner at the Wildwood Country Kitchen and a visit and tea at Pinecrest Medicare Facility, Powers, Oct. 20.

Mrs. Sundin presided at the meeting and Mrs. Gust Boydston gave the secretary's report.

Reunion Party At Erickson Home, Bark River

BARK RIVER — A reunion and welcome party was held at the Howard Erickson home with a picnic dinner served at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Fournier made the three tiered cake decorated in pink and white which was a feature of the dinner table. Present for the occasion were Mrs. Erickson parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gillard Pearson and son, John; his guest, Miss Betty Jane Olson, Danforth; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Erickson, all of Bark River, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bolm and children of Ensign; the Algot and Leonard Ericksons and Albert Gagne families of Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pearson.

Howard Erickson, who has taught electrical engineering at Michigan Technological University, Houghton, since 1959, will teach electronics in the college technician program, sophomore engineering courses required for engineering students and mathematics, at the Bay de Noc Community College.

Erickson was born in Escanaba and was married in 1957 to the former Joanne Pearson, daughter of the Gillard Pearsons of Bark River. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Erickson of Bark River. They have three children, David, Sally and John. They live in the home formerly occupied by the A. E. Johnsons which they purchased from Glenn Sandell.

A graduate from Bark River-Harris High School, Erickson spent four years in the Navy, attending electronics schools and working with radar and IFF equipment. He received an honorable discharge with the rank of Electronics Technician I. He then enrolled at MTU and received his bachelor's and master's degrees in electrical engineering.

Personals

Perkins School Fall Term Will Begin Sept. 8

PERKINS — Supt. Joseph Vestich has announced that the Perkins School will re-open Tuesday, Sept. 8. Classes will be held in the morning only, and there will be a teachers meeting in the afternoon.

Buses will run on the same schedule as last year. There will be no hot lunch on the first day of school. The hot lunch will begin Sept. 9 and the price this year will be $3.25 a month or 90 cents a week.

High school students are asked to register Thursday, Sept. 3. Ninth grade students are asked to register between 9 and 10:30 a.m.; 10th grade students from 10:30 to 12:11h grade from 1 to 2:30 p.m. and 12th grade from 2:30 to 4 p.m. If any new families have moved into the area they may register that day also.

Holy Name Officers

The men of St. Joseph parish met at the Church Hall Monday evening to elect officers for the new year. They are: president, Marcel Jodocy; vice president, G. J. Depuydt; secretary, Napoleon Sharkey; treasurer, Eldon Sharkey. The men will meet once a month.

After a vacation trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Max Peterson of Ann Arbor spent a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Norman Aasen and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson. The Petersons are moving to Rock Island, Ill., where Max will be the assistant football coach at Augustana College.

Charles Turan, who had surgery at St. Vincent's Hospital in Green Bay recently, will be confined to the hospital for many weeks. His room number is 1023.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sharkey spent the weekend visiting in Baraga and sightseeing in the Copper Harbor area.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Aasen and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Shook of Sioux City, Iowa, spent a week camping in Wisconsin. The Shooks returned to their home in Sioux City Saturday after spending several days here. Other guests at the Aasen home recently were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schoning of Cleveland.

Party for Veterans

The Legion Auxiliary and several members of the Legion held a party at the Veterans Hospital in Iron Mountain for the hospitalized veterans recently. Games were played and Mrs. Ray Cartwright entertained the men by playing several selections on her accordion. Members making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Adolore Gerou, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fuhrman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cartwright, Hilda LaChance and Jean Johnson.

Social-Club

The Senior Citizen Social Club will have its first meeting of the new season Wednesday, Sept. 23, at Club 314. Details will be announced later by the president, Mrs. Peter Logan.

Peter Botrow Celebrates His 80th Birthday

Peter Botrow of 601 S. 11th St., recently celebrated his 80th birthday at a gathering of relatives and friends at his home, where he lives with his adopted son.

A birthday dinner was served and cards were played during the evening.

Guests were Miss Lillian Rowe, Mrs. Mabel Beauchamp, Mrs. Jean Wery, Buster Vezina, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cayer, Miss Tammy Cayer, Mrs. Martha Scheibner, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Schoen, Mr. and Mrs. George Lund, and Mrs. Angie Anawalt, Detroit, Mrs. Pearl Bottrell, Powers, Donald Morreau, Elkhart Lake, Wis.

Mr. Botrow, who is semi-retired, began working for the Chicago & North Western Railway when he was 13. He later was employed filing saws for the old Wooden Ware Co., was a millwright in Martin's Ferry, Ohio, for LaBell Box Co., and also for the I. Stephenson Co. at Wells. Later he went to Neenah as head fireman for Kimberly Clark Paper Co.

He was employed as caretaker for the Holy Child School in Harbor Springs and for a church in Gladstone, and during the war years was a carpenter at Willow Run Bomber plant. After serving as caretaker of the Girl Scout camp where he built the lodge now in use, he turned to jobbing, his most recent employment.

Mr. Botrow's wife, the former Helen Cote of Powers, whom he married in St. Anne's Church, died a number of years ago.

Dinner Party For Long-Time Auxiliary Group

A dinner and card party were held at Camp M-7 Lodge, South Ford River, honoring Mrs. Edward Anderson and two charter members of V. F. W. Auxiliary 2998, Mrs. Ernest Rudolph and Mrs. John Hamm.

The table centerpiece was a beautiful heart-shaped cake with 29 candles, in recognition of their years of membership. Other members who were guests were Mrs. Charles Tolan, Mrs. Arne Rian, Mrs. Thomas Powers, Mrs. Adolph Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth Bryne and Mrs. Joseph Osier.

Gifts were awarded during party. Mrs. William Hansen assisted Mrs. John Donovan, the hostess.

Pig Scramble Continues For Rock Family

ROCK—The West Rock 4-H club members who came home with a pig from the pig scramble are Carol Lippens and Jimmy Kaukola. Jimmy has been having quite a time with his pig since then. He was the smallest boy and he caught the biggest pig. Since the first pig scramble, the Kaukola family has had three more pig scrambles. The pig just won't stay put in his pen. However, they say they have things under control now. Other West Rock members who took part in the scramble at the Fair were Ellen Bakka, Carol Niemela, Nancy Linjala and Tommy Lippens.

West Rock 4-H members who were on the rifle team for 4-H were Jimmy Lippens, Bill Bakka, Carol Niemela and Carol Lippens. Ellen Bakka entered the open class rifle competition.

Nancy Linjala entered her heifer in 4-H and open class competition and received a blue ribbon in both. She also won in showmanship competition.

Marquette county service club members went on to the Marquette and Huron Mountain train ride to Big Bay on Tuesday. Going from West Rock were Carol Niemela, Carol Lippens, Nancy Linjala, and Ellen Bakka.

Ambulance Dues

Mrs. George Vandenbusche will collect for the St. Nicholas area for the Rock Community Ambulance membership.

Any woman who has lived in quarters just a little too small for her family has learned at least one thing: it is easier to take care of a house the right size than one that isn't large enough. Maintenance is much simpler when there is a proper place for everything.

Architect Lester Cohen has designed his latest House of the Week for the family which can use at least three bedrooms and has suburban or country property. It is well-proportioned, one-story brick and fieldstone residence with a friendly exterior and what might be called a "spacey" interior. The 91-foot length of Design H-46 permits a room arrangement that is both dramatic and practical. In short, it has a pleasing appearance and an excellent traffic pattern.

A raised front terrace, with wide stone steps on one side, provides a welcome introduction to the house. The front door is recessed under the roof overhang, and just inside is a center hall plan that starts designed this latest House of two hall closets. Directly to the left is the sleeping wing with a master bedroom and three additional bedrooms, one of which can be used as a spare room for overnight guests if the size of the family warrants keeping it for that purpose. Remember when every house in the country had a spare room for that visit from the grandparents or junior's friends?

Besides the regular bath in the master bedroom, there is a dressing room with a built-in vanity, another large bathroom in the bedroom wing, and a powder-room lavatory right off the family room and the back porch.

To the right of the center hall are the living room and the dining room with a sweep of 34' and attractive window details in both areas. However, the traffic layout makes it possible to enter the front door and go directly to the family room and kitchen without crossing the living room or dining room.

It is at the rear of the house, in this family room - kitchen section, where we see the value of a well-planned service area. Note the enclosed porch, not jutting out, but directly next to the family room, permitting out-door dining even on rainy days. The fireplace in the family room is backed up by a barbecue for indoor "cookouts." The adjoining kitchen, separated by a snack bar, has a full complement of appliances, with a sink, dishwasher and refrigerator on the window side and an oven and counter range on the side wall. Next to the kitchen is the mud room, with easy access to the garage, a second porch or the side walk. The laundry area is combined here, separated from the tidy kitchen and out of sight of the family room. It is here that the kids can get rid of mud and dirt that otherwise might be tracked through the house. Tools, toys and bikes can be kept in the two-way storage section between the garage and the back porch.

The constant demand of housewives for more closets is amply supplied. Entirely aside from the purely storage space in the service area, two-car garage and basement, there are two closets in the center hall, a linen closet, four closets in the master bedroom, two in each of the other bedrooms and one in the mud room.

Square foot area for the house, excluding the front terrace, porches and garage, is 1998. Speaking of the garage, which has a side entry, it appears from the front to be part of the house rather than an appendage, thanks to the architect's blending of style and materials.

Emil Groleau, of Ensign, reported to State Police that between 20 and 25 cords of firewood was taken from property owned by the Federal Forestry Department located off of Camp 16 Road. The wood was taken sometime during the last month. Investigation is continuing.

The igloo has almost vanished from the western Canadian Arctic. The kayak is no longer used and children are taught in English.

Pram Sailors Win Awards

Steve Madden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Madden, was the recipient of grand prize for having earned the highest amount of accumulative points and winning the final pram sailing race. He was presented with his trophies at the final meeting of the Junior Yacht Club Wednesday evening at the Yacht Club. Reuben Sjoquist presented the awards to the high point junior sailors.

In the final race, under the direction of Betsy Hale, held Wednesday afternoon at the pram sight, Bill Marmalick came in second, Bill Noreus, third, Chuck Stewart, fourth, John Noreus, fifth, Wayne Lewis, sixth, Marcy Zimmerman, seventh, Barb Marshall, eighth, Laurie Kaufman, ninth and Kathy Madden, tenth.

A qualification race was held prior to the final race to determine the starters from the group earning fewer accumulative points and the results showed Chuck Stewart coming in ahead with Marcy Zimmerman, second, followed by Wayne Marshall, John Lewis, Bart Stupak, Steve Schram, Jim Noreus, and Scott Stade. The top three were eligible for the final race.

Awards presented Wednesday evening were given by the Gladstone Yacht Club.

Yacht Hits Rock; Princess Rides Rubber Lifeboat

OLBIA, Sardinia (AP)—Britain's Princess Margaret, her husband and the Aga Khan abandoned a yacht which hit a rock in heavy seas off Sardinia, and reached shore safely in rubber lifeboats, Italian authorities said Thursday.

Mario Castellucci, chief administrative officer for this vacation area, said the accident happened Wednesday while the three, and the Aga Khan's French lawyer, Andre Arduc, of Paris, were on an outing aboard the Aga Khan's pleasure boat, the Amaloun.

Castellucci said the small yacht, which has a five-man crew, hit a rock about 75 yards off shore from Capriccioli, a northern Sardinian beach area under development by the Aga Khan.

Detroit Mayor May Run Again

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh said Wednesday he may run for a second term as mayor and added he had no intentions to seek a job in Washington.

In Atlantic City to attend the Democratic national convention he told a reporter, "I am very happy and very satisfied with the job I'm in presently."

"We still have another year to go finishing this term," Cavanagh continued. "All things being equal I might very possibly stand for re-election next year. I don't have any intentions or plans to move elsewhere, particularly not to a job in Washington."

Tributes Paid Mrs. Kennedy

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy greeted thousands of Democratic delegates with a smile and a handshake at a reception in her honor. But she left town before the convention paid tribute to her assassinated husband in its closing session.

The five-hour-long reception, given Thursday by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Mrs. Harriman, was the first large public function the former First Lady has attended since last November's tragedy.

Accompanied by several of the Kennedy clan — sisters-in-law Eunice Shriver, Jean Smith and Pat Lawford — Mrs. Kennedy flew in for the occasion. After the last guest had filed past the receiving line, she left town bound for her mother's summer home in Newport, R.I.

A family spokesman said the filmed memorial tribute to her husband would be too much of an emotional ordeal for her.

Successful Art Show Is Held

The second annual Schoolcraft art show had 125 exhibitors this year, and more than 225 attending it, Mrs. J. J. Herbert and Mrs. Karl Krumrey, co-chairman report.

The successful showing in the school gymnasium, with recorded background music featured craft work as well as paintings this year.

The Schoolcraft Historical Society and Chamber of Commerce sponsor the show in cooperation with community groups such as 4-H, the Cooperative Extension Service art classes and Boy Scouts.

Exhibitors this year came from Blaney and Munising as well as the Manistique area.

Ruth Eckstein Is Bride Of William Buzzo

White and yellow gladioli graced the altar and kneeling bench of First Baptist church, Millington for the wedding of Ruth Eileen Eckstein and William Buzzo, August 22 at 4 p.m. The Rev. E. H. Eckstein, father of the bride, and former pastor of the First Baptist church, Manistique officiated at the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. A. Barton Brown, Burton Baptist Church, Grand Rapids.

Lawrence Weaver of Gulliver was soloist accompanied by Suzanne Sieweke, Millington.

Parents of the couple are Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Eckstein of Millington and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Buzzo, Gulliver.

The Attendants

Attending the bride were her sister, Miriam L. Eckstein, maid of honor and bridesmaid, Mrs. Janice Eckstein, her sister-in-law. The best man was the bridegroom's brother, John Buzzo of Gulliver and groomsmen was Albert Eckstein, Muskegon. Howard Pawley of Clawson and John Williams, Caro ushered.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white tulle with a scoop neckline, long tapered sleeves and fitted bodice. The skirt had overlapping side pleats which fell into a full, chapel-length train. A corded design of tulle trimmed the bodice and front panel of the skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held with a rose trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gamelia.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid wore identical street length sheaths of chiffon over tulle with a scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves in mint green and orchid, respectively. Their matching headpieces were large double bows with small circular veils. They carried cresent bouquets of yellow gladioli.

The bride's mother chose a street-length light blue chiffon over tulle sheath with white accessories and her corsage was pink roses with white feathered carnations. Mrs. Buzzo's costume was a street-length beige dress with white accessories and her corsage was pink roses and white feathered carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church with Carol Eckstein, cousin of the bride, in charge of the guest book, Roseanne Sieweke, Millington, the punch bowl, Mrs. Manny Arrowood, aunt of the bridegroom, Iron Mountain, coffee service and Donna Arrowood, bridegroom's cousin from Iron Mountain, iced tea. Mrs. John Carstensen, Manistique, cut and served the 3-tiered square wedding cake, trimmed with yellow roses, made by Mrs. Charles Taylor of Mt. Morris, cousin of the bride.

Wesley Buzzos Honored

Following the serving of the bride's cake at the reception, a surprise recognition was given to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Buzzo, parents of the bridegroom on their 40th wedding anniversary, which was August 23. They were presented with a special cake trimmed with sugar bells and dark red cascading roses, symbolizing the ruby anniversary. Miriam Eckstein and Lawrence Weaver sang a duet.

For going away, the bride selected a royal blue brocade dress, in style similar to the bridesmaid's, with white accessories and corsage of white roses.

The bride is a graduate of Manistique High School, attended Muskegon School of Business, and is employed in Flint. The bridegroom attended Central Michigan University, is a graduate of Cleveland Business College, Escanaba and is employed by Inland Steel Co.

Guests at the wedding were from Manistique, Gulliver, Iron Mountain, Flint, Clio, Mt. Morris, Clawson, Detroit, Harbor Beach, Grand Rapids, Stanton, Muskegon, Kalamazoo, Millington and Chicago.

Milwaukee Family Has Shakedown Cruise On Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holzbauer and children, Mary, Paul and Pat, twins; and David, visited in Manistique Harbor enroute from Mackinac Island to their home, after a family vacation on Lake Michigan.

The trip has included swimming, horseback riding and cycling at Mackinac Island and a stop at British Landing, which made Mrs. Holzbauer feel "at home." She is from England, met her husband while he was on service there. They have two other, older children who are in Milwaukee for start of classes at Marquette University and work.

The trip is a shakedown cruise for the Holzbauer. They obtained their boat last year, trading a smaller boat. He is in real estate appraisal.

"People have talked about your harbor and how nice it is here. And it is. Your stores are nice, and close to the harbor and we had a wonderful meal at one of your cafes downtown," Mrs. Holzbauer said.

While here they purchased an electric heater, to dry out after weathering heavy seas enroute from the Island, and some games and toys for the children.

Entertainment aboard includes playing tapes the family made last winter while waiting for summer navigating weather.

The family plays the tapes and chuckles as mood music is interrupted to bring a weather forecast which says "weather will be fair and clearing tomorrow with temperatures 10 to 15 degrees" or "three inches of snow are forecast tomorrow."

Holzbauer says he has a pretty good crew aboard. Mary helps anchor lines when they put into port, and Paul and Pat and David also help. Mrs. Holzbauer tried navigating Wednesday and was at helm 1 1/2 hours.

Their boat, 33 feet long, was called "Bad Habits", by the prior owner. They are changing it to "Joan's Island."

Women's Golf Tourney Underway

The Ladies Wednesday night golf and bridge group did not have matches this week due to the tournament underway. Going into the semi-finals in the championship flight are Mrs. Earl LeBrasseur, Mrs. William Howe, Helen Voisine, and Mrs. Leo Curran.

In the first flight are Mrs. Lee Pauas, Mrs. Glen Pawley, and Mrs. E. E. Cookson, and in the second flight, Mrs. Lyle Smith, Mrs. Stanelly Arnold, Mrs. Bruce McKilligan, Mrs. George Wood. Final matches are to be played before Sept. 1. Monkey golf will be played Sept. 3. One club and a putter will be used in play. Pairings are:

K. LeBrasseur - A. Stram
M. Malloy - E. Kasun
P. Carlson - L. Thompson
T. Atwater - A. Modders
M. Kelly - L. Howe
K. McKilligan - O. Smith
F. Leonard - M. Curran
E. Smith - G. Jackson
L. Pappas - A. Cookson
M. Hentschell - Bye
M. Laux - S. Richards

A short business meeting was held after the 7 p.m. dinner and committee reports were received. Mrs. Lee Pappas won the special award. The third week of tournament bridge followed. Awards went to Mrs. Ossie Smith, Mrs. Lyle Wilson, Mrs. Nick Modders, Mrs. Bud Malloy and Mrs. A. Heinz.

Next week's hostesses are Mrs. A. Cookram and Mrs. Lyle Wilson. Reservations should be called to Mrs. Cookram, 341-2766 before noon Tuesday.

Big Parachute Show Is Planned

A big exhibition of parachute jumping is scheduled at the Schoolcraft Airport Saturday and Sunday, with 10 jumpers participating.

The jumps will qualify some parachutists for their Class B license, which enables them to assist new students in making exhibition jumps and participating in national competition. Alan Walters of Manistique, Jeff Davis and Roy Borchardt of K. I. Sawyer AFB will be making the jumps for license.

Tom Bliss of Farmington will be among those performing this weekend. He is the U.P. record holder of 15,000 feet with free-fall record of one minute, 16 seconds to 2500 feet before opening.

He will ride with the jumpers teaching them turns and preventing spin in free fall. Vern Bernard, airport manager and commercial pilot will fly the parachutists.

Delays of 30 to 45 seconds in freefall of 5,000 and 7,500 feet is scheduled for the shows Saturday and Sunday. There is no charge for the exhibition.

Airplane rides will be available during the day and lunch will be served.

Sgt. Strasler Receives Degree From University

Staff Sergeant Edward T. Strasler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Peterson of Cooks has graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a B. S. degree in mechanical engineering, the Air Force reports.

Sergeant Strasler studied under the Air Force Institute of Technology education program. The program provides selected Air Force members the opportunity for resident training in scientific, engineering and other fields at civilian institutions and industrial organizations.

The sergeant is being assigned to the Rocket Propulsion Laboratory at Edwards AFB, Calif. His organization supports the Air Force Systems Command mission of research, development and testing of Air Force planes and missile systems.

A graduate of Cooks High School, the sergeant attended Rollins College, Orlando, Fla. He entered the service in January 1954.

His wife, Phyllis, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pasino of 306 Chipewa Ave., Manistique.

Hospital

Admitted to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital were Doris Archey, Gary, Ind.; Richard Obermiller, Gulliver; Velma McDowell, Flint; Gilbert Smith, 424 Riverdale; Marilyn Barnes, 440 Alger; James Vanderark, 524 High St.; Delavan, Wis.; Margaret Popish, 217 Elk; Mary Curran, 427 Arbutus.

Discharged were Brenda Mulhaupt, Paul Kessler, Joyce Larson, Beverly Bond and baby.

Firm Provides Real Estate And Insurance Help

The Robert Orr Agency in Manistique serves as agent for the Detroit & Northern Savings and Loan Assn., sells all types of insurance, and provides real estate brokerage service.

Robert B. Orr, a native Manistique resident is in charge of the business which was started in Nov. 1954 as an insurance firm. The Detroit & Northern service was added Jan. 1, 1956 and the real estate brokerage service has just been added.

Resort, commercial, industrial, residential and farm properties are handled. Life, health, fire, accident, casualty, inland marine insurance and bonds are sold by the Agency, which has Jean Vallier as a full-time employee and Mrs. Robert (Janet) Orr, parttime.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Orr studied real estate methods and practices for the addition of this service by the firm.

Detroit & Northern was founded in 1889, 75 years ago, and has been operating in a period which brought greater changes in world history and way of life than any other 34 century recorded. Through it all, Detroit & Northern has continued steadfast, growing, expanding and serving more and more savers, he notes.

Throughout the years, conservative policies that assure stability and security have been followed.

Copper was king in the 1880s and heart of his kingdom was Hancock, on the Keweenaw peninsula of Michigan's fabulous U. P. copper country. Long before industry brought mushroom growth to Detroit and Flint, 66,000 people lived on mining company paychecks as millions of pounds of the red metal were drawn from the earth.

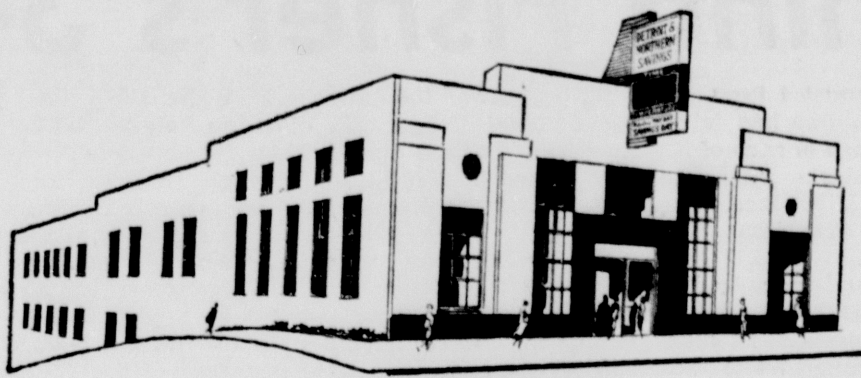

Boom towns were born. Yankee storekeepers, Mississippi gamblers, clerks, lawyers, preachers rushed to Keweenaw. The richest strike was "Old Reliable" mine, opened on Quincy Hill above Hancock in 1852. This brought prosperity to Houghton and Hancock. There were savings to be guarded and new homes that needed financing. To meet both needs, Detroit and Northern was founded.

A charter was granted by the state Jan. 22, 1889 for the "Northern Michigan Building and Loan Assn." to receive savings and to lend this money to assist in buying, building and repairing homes. Since, the name has been modernized to "Detroit & Northern Savings and Loan Assn." The firm is marking its 75th year and has assets of over $145,000,000.

In addition to 12 Detroit & Northern offices in Detroit and Flint, 19 agencies represent the Association, covering the U. P. from Ironwood to Sault Ste. Marie and Calumet to Menominee.

The offices here are at 217 S. Cedar St.

Orr, who worked 19½ years for the Post Office department is a veteran of two years Air Force service. He is a member of the Manistique board of education and was its president last year. He and Mrs. Orr have four daughters.

Boosters Help Emerald Grid Ticket Sales

The Manistique Booster club is continuing its drive for members and is assisting the high school to sell season tickets for Emerald home games.

Parents may obtain reserved seats from Coach Richard Bonifas. The public may obtain them from William Cook, Ronald Hoholik, James Love and Lloyd Gray.

The drive ends Sept. 10. The first home game is scheduled Sept. 11 against Munising.

Stricter Curfew Enforcement To Start Sept. 1

The City Council has expressed concern with the number of minor children on streets of Manistique, unattended, during late hours and has ordered strict enforcement of the city curfew law beginning Sept. 1.

With school starting, it is more important than ever that youngsters spend the evening hour either at home or at supervised group activities. Members of the clergy, school and city officials have echoed this concern, the city notes.

Present curfew law requires that youngsters under 16 be off the street by 10 p.m., unless accompanied by a parent or guardian. It is unlawful for a parent or guardian to allow a minor under 16 to be out unattended at 10 p.m.

In recent years, courts have leaned more heavily on parents in controlling this, to encourage parental cooperation. The state has a similar statute regulating juvenile curfew hours so State Police will be assisting in enforcement of the statute in the city.

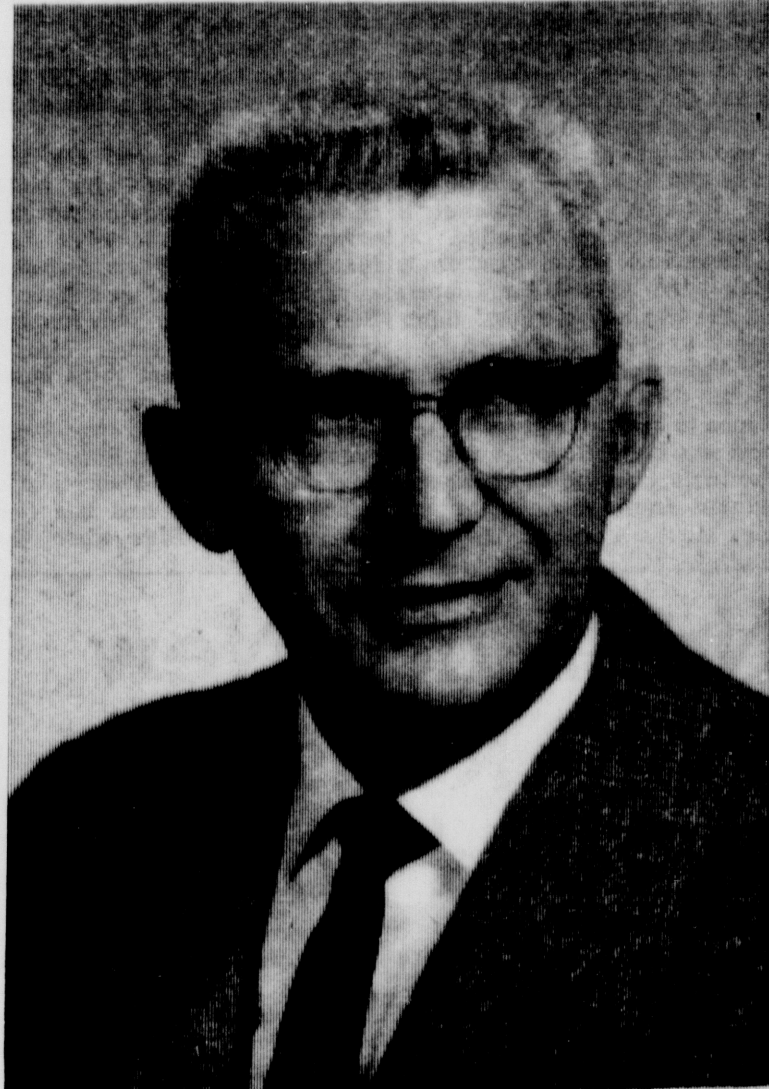

Personals

Fred Lesica, Tom Carlson and Carl Berger are matriculating at the University of Michigan. They are 1964 MHS graduates.

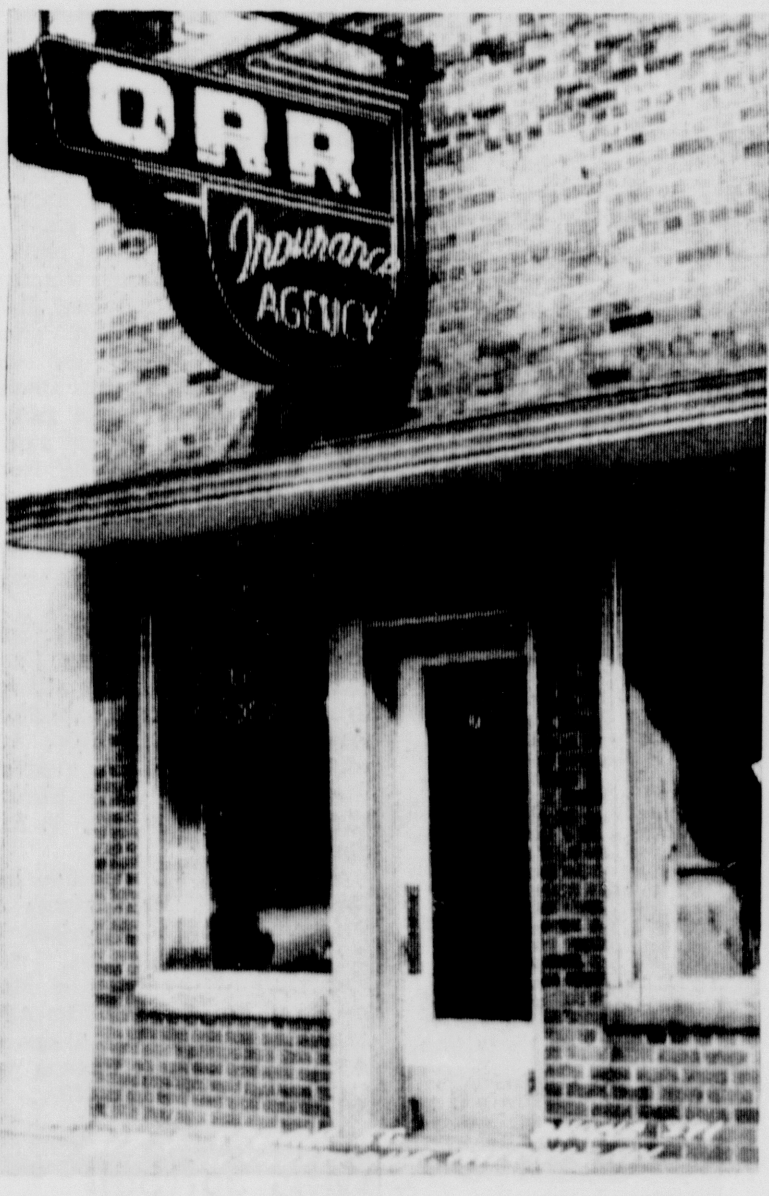

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Steele and Margaret Willebrand arrived Sunday from Gardena, Calif., to spend a few weeks as guests of James Howland at his cottage on Indian Lake.

Enroute to Manistique they visited in Milwaukee and will visit in Detroit on their return trip. Mr. and Mrs. Steele also plan to spend a few days at Niagara Falls and Kalamazoo visiting Stanley Steele.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McNamara spent the past weekend at the Blue Lake resort where they attended a family reunion and farewell party for Mrs. McNamara's sister.

ROBERT B. ORR is owner and manager of the Robert Orr Agency here, agent for Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan Assn. and offering a full line of insurance plus real estate brokerage service.

Among the players cut by professional football teams this week was Tom Neumann, former Peshtigo and Northern Michigan University star, by the Boston Patriots of the American Football League. . . . Surviving the latest cut by the New York Jets of the AFL was Bill Rademacher of Menominee, another ex-Northern athlete. . . . He has seen little action in pre-season exhibition games because of a leg injury.

Harvey Filppula, Menominee High School basketball coach, has submitted a letter of resignation to the school board, which tabled the resignation and directed Supt. Alex M. Nelson to handle the situation. . . . Nelson said that Filppula demanded to be appointed head basketball coach before the start of the school term. . . . School officials refused, stating they will make the appointment two or three weeks prior to the start of the basketball season. . . . They did not state their reasons for withholding the coaching appointment to that late date.

Marinette Marine ran up a string of 18 straight victories in the Menominee Twin City Softball league this season. . . . The league champs will attempt to make a clean sweep of honors in the annual playoff series starting this week. . . . Menominee teams do not compete in Upper Peninsula tournaments.

Coach George Guskic of Iron Mountain has 15 returning letter winners on his squad this fall, all of whom were regulars on offense or defense last season when the Mountaineers lost eight straight games. . . . One of the standouts at Iron Mountain is Jim Lindstrom, senior halfback who has been a regular for the past three seasons. . . . Last year he gained 761 yards in 134 carries and tallied six touchdowns.

Gwinn, a relative newcomer to Upper Peninsula football circles, will face a rugged eight game schedule this season, playing Munising, Calumet, Ishpeming, Newberry, Niagara, Negaunee, Stephenson and Gladstone. . . . This will be Gwinn's fifth year in the sport and the Model Towners will be coached by Lee Johnson who is in his second year at the post. . . . He has only nine returning lettermen.

New coach John Haege of St. Ignace, taking over the reins from John Soderman this fall, has 13 returning lettermen among his 40 candidates. . . . Heading the list of returnees is Dale Voice who made the Straits Huron all-conference team as an end last fall. . . . The Saints open their season with a home stand against Pickford Sept. 4.

Don Lundin, who resigned as football coach at Ontonagon last fall, is an assistant this year on the coaching staff at Green Bay Southwest High School, a brand new school. . . . The school has an enrollment of 850 students and will compete, along with Green Bay East and West, in the Fox River Valley Conference.

Gene Melchiori, newly appointed Norway football coach, has 14 lettermen including five regulars back in the fold this fall. . . . One of Melchiori's biggest jobs will be to fill the shoes of Steve Burr who last year made the All-Menominee Range Conference, All-Upper Peninsula and All-State Class C teams. . . . The Vikings open the 1964 season with a home stand against Coach Don Pfotenbauer's Gladstone Braves.

At Bessemer, new coach Jack White has a dozen returning lettermen but faces a rebuilding chore to replace 11 veterans lost through graduation. . . . Probably the biggest loss was Dick Sofio, 205 pound center who made the All-U. P. team. . . . Heading the returnees is Mark Martini who led the Speed Boys in scoring with six touchdowns last fall.

Rookie Golfer Leads Carling

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — Can the youngsters — Archer, Devlin and Sikes — hold up under the terrific pressure of such a rich tournament? Can the big name players — Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Ken Venturi and Tony Lema — solve the intricacies of the greens which proved so frustrating on the opening day?

Palmer, who led the so-called Big Three with a 70, needed an 18-foot putt on the final hole to finish level with par, tied with nine others for fifth place. Gary Player, bunched with almost two dozen players at 72, said "any man who could be sure of sinking a putt over two feet had to be a genius."

Nicklaus missed two putts of under two feet in a round of 73 and said, "I was driving well, but I missed seven greens and I couldn't putt."

Venturi, the National Open winner, admitted he was completely baffled by the rolling greens of the 6,907-yard layout after he fired a 74. "These greens really got my number," Venturi said.

Others were 70 and over, including all the hotshot favorites.

Braves Blast Giants 13-0 Behind Fisher's 3-Hitter

By The Associated Press

Hank Fischer, who had failed to last two innings in each of his previous four starts, pitched a three-hitter as Milwaukee pummeled San Francisco 13-0 Thursday night.

The American League-leading Orioles were idle, but they open a vital four-game series tonight with the Chicago White Sox whose 5-2 loss to Minnesota Thursday put them one-half game behind the Orioles.

The teams played a four-game series last weekend, with Baltimore winning three times and moving from one-half game behind the White Sox to 1½ in front. The upcoming four games — two tonight and one each Saturday and Sunday — will be the last between the contenders. Baltimore holds an 8-6 edge.

Milwaukee gave Fischer a quick edge against the Giants, and the 24-year-old right-hander used it to great advantage.

In those previous four starts, Fischer didn't give the Braves a chance to build a lead for him.

He was battered for 18 runs in four innings in the appearances, running from Aug. 2 through Aug. 15.

The game was the only one in the National League. In other American League games, Detroit nipped Boston 5-4, and Los Angeles bombed Kansas City 7-1.

Fischer received strong support from Rico Carty and Woody Woodward, who each drove in four runs. Carty ignited a six-run first inning with a homer and later tripled in three runs. Woodward climaxed the first-inning outburst with a three-run double and knocked in another run with a single.

Hank Aaron drove in a pair of runs while Lee Maye ended the 16-hit barrage with a homer in the eighth.

Jimme Hall scored the tie-breaking run in the Twins' ninth on a double steal and a throwing error by Chicago catcher J.C. Martin. Hall had singled and advanced to second on a walk to Bob Allison. When the runners tried a double steal, Martin threw the ball past third base, permitting Hall to come.

Minnesota added two more runs in the inning on Bernie Allou's single and Ed Fisher's wild pitch. The game had been tied 2-2 since the fifth when the White Sox rallied for two runs on Pete Ward's homer and Mike Hershberger's run-scoring single.

Joe Adcock's 300th career homer was one of three for the Angels. The two-run blast off Kansas City loser Diego Segui highlighted a four-run second inning. Willie Smith and Lenny Green also connected for Los Angeles. Adcock added two singles and another RBI.

Not Much New With Redskins In Third Loss

By The Associated Press

Washington's Redskins are supposed to be a new look outfit. But they've won only one of four, which is not new. This is a bad thing.

Baltimore, on the other hand, has an old look. Like Johnny Unitas. He's looking like the old Johnny Unitas. This is a very good thing.

Unitas, guiding light in Baltimore's National Football League championship years in 1958 and 1959, had all the marks of the Unitas of that era Thursday night as he directed the Colts to a 41-14 exhibition rout of the Redskins.

Unitas one of the most feared passers in the game, connected on two touchdown passes and engineered another drive against the Redskins, whose two previous losses had been by a single point.

A sellout crowd of 45,016 jammed into D.C. Stadium in Washington for the game and saw Unitas get the defensive help that was lacking last season in the game that opened a full, 11-game weekend exhibition schedule for the major pros.

Four more games are scheduled tonight — two each in the National and American Football Leagues — and six are on tap Saturday.

The top game tonight has the St. Louis Cardinals and defending champion Chicago Bears, each with a 2-1 record, playing in Chicago. Both have played Green Bay, the Cards winning 20-7 and the Bears losing 21-7.

Detrit, unbeaten but once tied, is expected to use ex-Brown Milt Plum against Cleveland in the Browns' home game. The Browns, now 2-1 and again getting stand-out running from Jimmy Brown, will have quarterback Frank Ryan back in action. Ryan sat out last week's 42-7 victory over Pittsburgh with a sore shoulder.

In the American League, Boston's Patriots, defending Eastern Division champions, will try to snap a nine-game exhibition losing string at Buffalo, 1-2, while Denver, with new quarterback Jack Lee, plays Kansas City at Fort Worth, Tex. in Friday night action.

Saturday's NFL schedule has New York vs. Philadelphia at Princeton, N.J., Green Bay at Dallas, Pittsburgh vs. San Francisco at Omaha, and Minnesota at Los Angeles. The AFL has New York vs. San Diego at Atlanta, Ga., and Houston vs. Oakland at Las Vegas, Nev.

Girls Softball

Ludington Motors defeated Bay de Noc College 14-8 in tournament action Thursday. Jeanie Vandewiele was the winning pitcher.

Saykilly's defeated State Bank 10-8 in the other tournament game played last night.

Highland Lists Tourney Teams

Pairings were made for the Mixed Pari-Mutuel Golf event to be held Saturday afternoon at the Highland Golf Club. In all, there will be 72 golfers, making a total of 18 teams. A turkey dinner will follow the golfing.

A shotgun start will be used with two teams on every tee. Golfers are reminded that the starting time will be 3:00 p. m. sharp.

Following are the teams:

Team No. 1—Al Davidson, Irene Milkovich, Vern Kolb, Vi Brown.

Team No. 2—Ed McCarthy, Elaine Fairchild, Bud Stadel, Marcie Derouin.

Team No. 3—Louis Morin, Carole Daniels, Hazen Hengesh, Ruth Stadel.

Team No. 4—Burl Barnhart, Nancy Dietrich, Babe Winchester, Mildred Ford.

Team No. 5—Lanny Johnson, Caroline Olson, Sherm Robinson, Mary Anne Mathia.

Team No. 6—Jack Smith, Doris Costley, Ralph Secrist, Dorothy Winchester.

Team No. 7—Ben Douglas, Ruth Hengesh, Jake Olson, Gladys Pearson.

Team No. 8—Buzz Riegall, Mugs Beauchamp, Jim Bright, Helen McCarthy.

Team No. 9—Nick Goymerac, Margaret Douglas, Fred Mathia, Kate Walters.

Engadine Has Dozen Football Lettermen Back

ENGADINE — Coach Rod Carlson has 40 candidates, including 12 lettermen, on his Engadine High School football squad that is practicing daily from 6 to 8 p. m.

Among the dozen returning letter winners are 10 regulars from last year's squad. Only one senior was lost through graduation.

Returning lettermen include Lee Miller, Wayne Flatt, Steve McQuire, Leon Buss, Clarence Boucha, Marvin Germain, Dick Salter, Jack Archie, Richard Ozanich, Ken Troyer, Delmar Kovar and Bill Burton.

Other candidates rated highly by Carlson are Deryl Miller, Bill Barber, Cliff Walmsley, Mike Bigger, Bill Prater, Roger and George McNeil. The team will be bolstered by the return of Sam Browning and Roger McNeil who did not participate last fall.

Assistant coach this fall will be Mike Williams, former Escanaba Holy Name High School athlete and a recent Northern Michigan University graduate. Jim Bronson and Frank Salzeider are also assisting in pre-season practices.

This is the second year of a three year rebuilding program at Engadine and there are only seven seniors on the squad.

Demeter Repeats As Tiger Hero Against Bosox

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, riding the crest of a four-game winning streak, open a crucial four-game series against the Los Angeles Angels with a two-night doubleheader today.

The Tigers trail the league-leading Baltimore Orioles by 11 games after a come-from-behind 5-4 victory over the Red Sox in Boston Thursday. They lead the Minnesota Twins and the Angels by 2½ games in the battle for fourth place.

Manager Charlie Dressen will open the LA series with Hank Aguirre (3-7) and Phil Regan (5-9).

Los Angeles is expected to start Don Lee (5-4) and Dan Osinski (2-3).

Don Demeter, who hammered two home runs in Detroit's two previous triumphs over Boston Tuesday and Wednesday, was the hitting hero again Tuesday with a clutch two-run double in the eighth inning. It came off Boston relief wizard Dick Radatz, a Royal Oak school teacher.

Then Fred Gladding came in to stop a Red Sox rally in the last of the eighth to insure Terry Fox's third victory. With two out and the bases loaded, Gladding relieved Julio Navarro and got out of the jam by getting slugger Dick Stuart on a tap to short.

Demeter, which trailed at one time 4-1, roared back with a single run in the seventh and three more in the eighth to win.

The Red Sox were leading 4-2 when Don Wert singled and Jerry Lumpe followed with a three-bagger to chase starter Jack Lamabe. Radatz came in, walked Al Kaline, and then served up a double to Demeter.

The Tigers scored in the third on Lumpe's wind-blown double, and added another in the seventh when Gates Brown tripled and later scored.

Boston raked Detroit starter Joe Sparna and three other pitchers for 16 hits but left 12 men stranded. Lumpe had three of Detroit's eight hits and drove in two runs.

The Red Sox scored three runs on eight hits off Sparna and added another off Fox before he gave way to Navarro.

Public Invited To Young Hardwood Thinning Show

Young hardwood stands properly managed will grow faster, and yield more timber of high quality than the old original hardwood forests, states Roy E. Skog, forestry specialist, Michigan State University Extension Center, Marquette.

Thinning and other forestry practices used to achieve this will be discussed at a hardwood thinning demonstration scheduled for Delta County, Sept. 9, announces Joseph L. Heirman, Delta County Extension director.

The demonstration, starting at 1:30 p. m., will be at a hardwood tract owned by Octave Carignan, and located on County Road 434 between Cornell and Brampton. The program will also include a demonstration of the new lightweight power chain saws. All woodland owners are invited to attend.

Guard Armory Gets Priority, Says Lundgren

State Senator Kent Lundgren announced today that there now exists a definite "Number One" priority schedule for the long awaited Gladstone Armory.

This was confirmed Thursday by Senator Lundgren in a long distance telephone call to General R. D. McDonald, commander of the Michigan National Guard, in Lansing.

Gen. McDonald told Lundgren that the proposed Gladstone Armory carries both a state and federal priority for the next fiscal appropriations year.

Briefly Told

Harold Putnam of Putnam Feature Services, Detroit, will show color slides of the Upper Peninsula at a free presentation in the State Office Building at 7:30 tonight arranged by UPCA.

Escanaba police have issued traffic court summonses to Robert C. Lewis, Domondale, Mich., speeding; James F. Gallagher, 1432 Stephenson Ave., defective head light; Allen D. Erickson, 632 N. 7th St., speeding; Chirley Mae Thorsen, Dahl River Rte. 1, failing to exercise due care.

Albin Hansen of 1210 S. 16th St. has reported to Escanaba police the malicious damage to his boat at San Island in the Escanaba harbor. The boat had holes chopped in its bottom.

The Escanaba city steam plant will begin operating again on Aug. 31 for the start of the heating season, it is announced by City Manager George Harvey. The utility is closed for the summer period from about June 1 to Sept. 1.

The Silver Spur Saddle Club will meet Sunday afternoon at the Palmquist land near Fernwood Cemetery at Gladstone to plan for the horse show to be held on Sept. 13.

Larry R. Peters, R. N., has joined the Nursing Department Staff at Newberry State Hospital as resource nurse. Peters is a graduate of Pennsylvania Hospital School of Nursing for Men and a veteran of the Army Medical Corps.

the Agricultural Conservation Program, will be discussed by Skog and Clarence Limpert, district forester, Michigan Department of Conservation, Escanaba. Other program participants include Heirman, who will relate thinning of hardwood to future maple sap production for syrup making.

At the demonstration Skog will show how tree stocking is measured to determine the right amount to thin. He states that thinning should be heavy enough to stimulate good tree growth, but not so heavy that stump sprouts, brush, invasion, and hide branching result.

Skog will also discuss hardwood management goals. Properly managed hardwood stands will yield continuous crops of cordwood products from thinning, and high-value sawlogs and veneer logs from "crop trees."

Limpert will identify the trees to cut and trees to leave in thinning operations, and show this is a stand marked for thinning and a thinned stand. He will also explain requirements for federal cost-sharing for doing forest improvement work. Cost-sharing is not allowed when a commercial cut of timber is made.

Nepal Learns About Progress From Peninsula

The Upper Peninsula has three young guests who are seeking information of value for application in their homeland. It is a long way off and very different from the Upper Peninsula.

It is Nepal, which lies between India and China on India's northeast border, a country with small population and low income that has 22 missions abroad to learn ways in which to improve itself.

The little mission to the Upper Peninsula brings us Subarna Rana, Prem Singh and Janak Thapa. They are all students at the University of Missouri where they plan to get master degrees in sociology next February and then return to Nepal to work for its Ministry for Community Development. Their work will be to stimulate the Nepalese to self-betterment.

To do this they will encourage them in economic enterprises, cultural activities, education, agriculture and other fields.

They are the guests in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan State University's Extension Service, which is showing them its activities in a part of Michigan not like Michigan's more familiar Detroit metropolitan industrial complex.

Sault Lessons
At Sault Ste. Marie they saw what happens when a community loses its industries — the offering of the poorer houses for sale, the tendency of neighborhoods to go slummy — and they saw the valiant efforts to attract new industry to bolster the economy.

They visited the Shephard dairy farm and seemed as interested in Mrs. Shephard's school teaching (this year she got her degree at Northern Michigan University), as in the family herd and oat harvest. They visited the Chippewa County 4-H and FFA camp and fair.

Chairman Cameron of the Bay Mills Indian Council told them with pride that three young Chippewas of the community are going to college this fall. "He even knew what they'll major in." He approved of integration and introduced his granddaughter as "a blue-eyed Chippewa." He remonstrated with Indian boys who were asking fees to show visitors an Indian cemetery.

The Nepalese went to a Marquette Country Club dance and enjoyed the dancing. All Hindus, they all dance. "The people there seemed mostly deans," one offered as a comment on Northern Michigan University's contribution to Marquette's social life.

They visited the U.P. State Fair in Escanaba. "Like fairs in my country," said Thapa, "for the young — merry-making — and industry products." The dairy herd was a top point of interest.

Nepal, population 10 million, is 95 per cent Hindu in religion, the rest largely Buddhist, and it's 85 per cent rural. About a third of the national income is from timber, which includes exports of teak, pine, and saal. The country has no coal or oil, uses wood for most of its cooking. There is a hydro-electric plant building, the first in the nation, and only three other diesel electric plants.

In 1950 only 3 per cent of males were literate and 5 per cent of females, last year the male literacy had increased to 16 per cent and the female to 7. Income is very low "but I don't think we can go your way," said Singh. "It will have to be modified. Automobiles, for instance, wouldn't add to our economy because we don't have enough roads to operate them on and we don't have enough income to run them." (Petrol is $1 a gallon.)

"American farm machinery does so much work that a few men can farm a thousand acres where we would need hundreds of people. We cannot mechanize quickly, only gradually."

After a tour of the Escanaba Division, Mead Corp. plant in Escanaba with Mrs. Lola Whitfield of the MSU Extension staff, the Nepalese were asked what interested them. Said Singh emphatically "Everything!"

Michigan Man, 20, Arrested For Arizona Killing

BUCKLIN, Kan. (AP) — Officers Thursday arrested a 20-year-old accused killer at a nearby farm.

Captured was Rodney Allen Sherwood of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Sherwood is charged in a federal complaint, upon which a warrant was issued, with unlawfully fleeing Arizona to avoid prosecution for murder.

He is charged in the slaying March 18 of John Roger Kaufmann, 33, of Houston, Tex. Kaufmann's body was found in the desert near Mohawk in southwestern Arizona. He had been shot twice in the head and his car stolen.

Two Corrections Officials Named

LANSING (AP) — Appointments of two new members to the State Corrections Commission were announced Thursday by Gov. George W. Romney.

Named for six-year terms expiring Oct. 1, 1969, were Mrs. Florence Crane of Ann Arbor and Joseph Gross of Detroit.

Mrs. Crane is a Republican and Gross is a Democrat. Senate confirmation is required.

Within a given year, almost 20 percent of U. S. citizens change address.

Plane Sails Off Without Pilot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An airplane flew without a pilot, a man sunk his boat in a swimming pool to protect it and a group of children had an ice cream party because of Hurricane Cleo.

In Miami, a twin-engine DC3 apparently took off from Opa-Locka Airport as Cleo swirled by. Nobody saw the flight, but the plane cleared several obstacles that could have been avoided only by traveling up.

"She just snapped her ropes and took off," said maintenance man Brian MacDonald. "All that wind rushing under the wings creates lift, and that's all you need to fly."

In West Palm Beach, a young suburbanite dropped his motor boat into his backyard swimming pool to protect it from Cleo's 100-mile winds, a trick fishermen learned centuries ago when they sunk their craft into lagoons and rivers at the approach of bad weather. Then, as now, it works.

A West Palm Beach housewife inadvertently stocked up on a freezer full of ice cream the afternoon before Cleo struck. Her power went out and the ice cream threatened to drip all over the kitchen.

Instead, she hauled it out and gave the neighborhood children an ice cream party.

Water Ski Show Set For Sunday By Aqua-Nuts

The Escanaba Aqua-Nuts water skiers will present a show of 20 acts on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 30, at the Municipal Dock. There will be an admission charge and the proceeds will be used to finance the Aqua-Nuts program.

The show is scheduled to get under way at 2 p. m. and there will be free balloons for children at the gate. By permission of the city of Ludington St. will be closed at 2nd St. to provide a spectator section for the show.

About 14 skiers will participate in the show that will include the pyramid, saw skiing, slalom and back ward skiing jumping, doubles acts, and the spectacular para-sail number.

The Aqua-Nuts are planning a competitive ski meet, open to all skiers of the area, to be held starting at 1 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 6. The winners in the tournament will be awarded trophies.

Logging Congress Edition Planned

The Escanaba Daily Press is busy with preparation of a special edition for publication in connection with the Logging Congress to be held in Escanaba, Sept. 10-11-12 and other preparations are going forward, but with the complication of illness suffered by Lloyd Palmer of Crandon, Wis.

Palmer, the new executive secretary of the Timber Producers Association of Michigan and Wisconsin, which sponsors the annual Logging Congress, has suffered a heart attack, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce has been informed. Doc Mossogio of Calumet, former secretary, is expected to assist with arrangements for the Congress, which is being handled at the local level by the Chamber of Commerce.

The Press' special edition will report the Congress program and offer an unusual presentation of counsel on Upper Michigan forestry needs by many of the most distinguished foresters in industry and government in the Upper Peninsula.

Exhibits of paper products, power saws and tools, heavy power equipment, conservation and forestry will highlight the 19th annual Lake States Logging Congress.

In addition to exhibits and business sessions, the three-day Congress will include a program of entertainment, including a tree felling contest, power sawing contest, pulpwood loading contest, and for the first time a log rolling contest. Trophies and cash prizes will be awarded to contest winners.

On Saturday, Sept. 12, the mile long parade with bands, floats, marching and drill units, displays and other features will move down Ludington St., at 2 p. m.

The Upper Peninsula State Fair grounds are home grounds for the Logging Congress. Games and contests will offer entertainment there and the business district of Escanaba offers opportunity for family shopping. This year's Congress is designed both as a family outing and business get-together.

The Logging Congress is designed mainly as an annual opportunity for operators in all phases of the industry to get together, discuss related problems, exchange experiences and generally learn what they can from others in the business.

"We are well along with the planning of the Congress," said General Chairman Marvin Pearson of Escanaba, "and we confidently believe, from indications at this time, that there will be more exhibits, covering more areas of operation in the industry, than ever before."

Nuclear U-Boats Permitted To Dock In Japan

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government agreed today to allow U.S. nuclear powered submarines to call at Japanese ports.

The matter has provoked considerable controversy among the Japanese, and their government has been debating the issue for a year and eight months.

To pacify the public, the U.S. Navy has promised the submarines will not carry nuclear tipped rockets.

The Navy says it asked for permission to dock the submarines so that crews can go ashore for leave.

There were no immediate indications when the first nuclear powered submarine would arrive.

Church School Rules Revised

LANING (AP)—Broad rules governing public school children's attendance at private religious classes during school hours will go into effect today, Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn Bartlett said today.

The rules implement a new state law which permits students to spend up to two hours per week away from public school classes at religious instruction.

Under the new rules, local boards of education must release a student for the religious classes upon annual written application of the student's parent or guardian.

State law requires the classes to be held off public school property. The administrative rules require the private group to keep attendance records.

Bartlett said he has "no way of knowing" how many of the state's estimated 1,915,000 elementary and secondary school students might take advantage of the program.

"I don't think it will be very many this year because the program is so late in starting," he said. One rule requires persons or groups conducting the religious classes to notify public school officials "sufficiently in advance of the beginning of such class" so that release requests can be processed.

Bartlett said representatives of numerous faiths have indicated long-range interest in the plan.

Solicitation for such classes is not permitted on public school grounds and public school officials are prohibited from either encouraging or discouraging participation in the religious programs.
